

shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on Board any Ship or Boat not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain, or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working-up or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufacturers or any Part of such Tools, he shall for every Offence forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on Board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts, in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on Board his Vessel, he shall for every such Offence forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ships Licorne, Pelican, and Du Guay Trouin; who were on Board at taking the Comete and Brilliant, on the 8th of June, 1781, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the Head Money arising from the said Captures, on Thursday next, the 21st Instant, at No. 11, Savage Gardens; and the Shares not then paid will be recalled the First Thursday in every Month at the same Place, for Three Years to come.

T. and W. Maude, for John Robinson, Esq; Agent for the Licorne.

Robert Robinson and Ebenezer Maitland, for John Vernon, Esq; Agent for the Pelican and Du Guay Trouin.

Whitehall, October 18, 1784.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That a great Number of anonymous incendiary Letters have been sent to William Manners, Esq; of Knightsbridge, by some evil disposed Person or Person unknown, of Two of which the following are Extracts:

Extract from a Letter, signed "J. Corbet."

"I am determined to have Satisfaction if there is a Drop of Blood worth drawing in the whole Race of you."

Extract from a Letter, dated Monday, June 14, 1784, without Signature.

"I shall come in a few Nights with such a Band of Friends as will put all Knightsbridge in a Consternation and will break open every Door in the House."

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and Sending the said anonymous incendiary Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, except the Person who actually wrote the said Letters, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement; the said Mr. William Manners doth hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, except as before is excepted, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
William Manners.
