Whitehall, November 22, 1784.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that about Four o'Clock in the Morning of the 15th Day of September last, a Ship or Vessel called the Ebenzer, of Penzgrund, in Norway, James Neilson, Master, laden with Deals, and bound for Bristol, struck upon the Goodwin Sands.—That the Master having made Signals of Distress, about Twenty Persons came in Boats from Ramsgate, and were employed by him in getting the Ship off the Sands, which they would in all Probability have effected, but were interrupted in and prevented from using the proper Means for that Purpose, by upwards of Two Hundred Persons, who came from Deal, and by Force and Violence boarded the said Ship, abused and ill-treated the said Master and his Crew, broke open the Ship's Hatches and Lockers, scuttled her Decks and Cabin, and plundered the said Ship of Parts of her Cargo; and in order to prevent her being got off the Sands, some of them cut away the Ship's Cable and Parts of her Shrouds, and drove out the Bolts of the Bit-Head, whereby the Windlass was so disabled that no farther Means could be used for her Preservation; and the Master and his Crew were obliged to quit their Ship, which was afterwards found afloat in the Gull Stream.

His Majesty, for the apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the several Acts of Piracy and Felony aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty also is pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
