The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen and Freeholders of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has, by his Lordship, been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen and Freeholders of the City of Dublin, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the warmest Affection, Duty and Respect, and with the most sincere Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Government, and to our happy Constitution.

We might justly be deemed insensible and unworthy of the Blessings of which, through your Majesty's auspicious Care, through the Justice and Liberality of Great Britain, and through the wise and firm Exertions of our Legislature, we have obtained the Enjoyment, if we omitted this seasonable Occasion of declaring our rooted Abhorrence of every Attempt to create unjust and dangerous Discontents, tending to subvert the Constitution in Church and State. We reject, with Indignation, the Interference of any Body of Men unknown to the Laws or Constitution. We rely upon the Continuance of your Majesty's Paternal Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, feeling the warmest and most grateful Confidence in your Majesty's late gracious Declaration, and in the Equity and Wisdom of the respective Legislatures of Great Britain and Ireland, that such Regulations upon the important Objects of Trade and Commerce will be established, as shall be found best calculated to promote the Wealth and Prosperity of all Parts of your Majesty's Empire. We cherish a firm and unchangeable Attachment to the Connection with our Sister Kingdom, as the great Band of mutual Strength and Safety. And we will suffer no assumed Authority to dictate to the Legislature of the Land.
