Madrid, November 1.

Letters from Carthagena in South America give an Account of an Earthquake, which was felt in the City of Santa-Fé on the 12th of July last, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning. Two Churches were entirely destroyed, and many publick and private Buildings greatly damaged. The Shock was felt in the neighbouring Towns and Villages of Yugatava, Caxica, and others, where the Churches have also been left in Ruins. Fortunately the Number of Lives lost appears to have been small. In Santa-Fé the Persons killed amounted only to Fourteen.

The Archbishop, who is likewise Viceroy of Santa-Fé, has made over the whole Revenues of his Diocese for the Relief of the Sufferers, and has received on this Occasion the Thanks of His Catholick Majesty, with Liberty to draw from the Royal Treasury what further Assistance he may judge necessary.

Victualling-Office, November 21, 1785.

THE Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Monday the 19th of December, next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as will supply Fresh Beef to His Majesty's Ships at Milford Haven: Which will be paid for by Bills in Course, with the Addition of the Discount, so as to make the Price equal to Ready Money.

No Tenders will be attended to that are not delivered before One o'Clock, nor unless they are made agreeably to the Conditions of the Contract, which may be seen at the Secretary's Office at this Office, or by applying to the Collector of the Customs at Haverfordwest.
