WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Saturday the 15th of April current, an anonymous incendiary Letter, addressed to David Mutrie, Manufacturer, Head of the Harvannah-street, Glasgow, was delivered him by the Post-Boy, of which the following is a Copy:

Glasgow April 14 1786

Sir,

We take this Opportunity to give You this warning of Your danger for Your behaviour in breaking the prices of the poors work and if You do not amend Your ways and put on what You have unjustly taken of the wages, we are determined that within the Space of One Month upwards of One hundred of us have made an Oath and entred into a Bond that if you do not retrac from what You have done that we will set Your warehouse in fire about your ears and for Yourself wherever we can find You and Your Accomplices we shall make you suffer for what You have done and likewise we hear in the Newspapers that You and Your combined begerly Crew are designed to oppose the operative Weavers but because You think if that pass into a Law Youl be prevented from breaking the Prices by refon the workmen will not be so plenty, likewise we hear whenever
