And to Three Private Bills.

His Grace was then pleased to make the following Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I HAVE seen, with great Satisfaction, the constant Attention and uncommon Dispatch with which you have gone through the Public Business. I am thereby enabled now to relieve you from further Attendance in Parliament. The Harmony of your Deliberations has given no less Efficacy than Dignity to your Proceedings; and I am confident that you will carry with you the same Disposition for promoting the Public Welfare to your Residence in the Country, where your Presence will encourage the Industry of the People, and where your Example and your Influence will be happily exerted in establishing general good Order and Obedience to the Laws.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for the liberal Supplies which you have given for the Public Service, and for the honourable Support of His Majesty's Government. They shall be faithfully applied to the Purposes for which they were granted. My Reliance upon your decided Support to the Execution of the Laws for the just Collection of the Public Revenue, affords me the best founded Hope, that the Produce of the Duties will not fall short of their estimated Amount.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The determined Spirit with which you have marked your Abhorrence of all lawless Disorder and Tumult, hath, I doubt not, already made an useful Impression; and the salutary Laws enacted in this Session, and particularly the Introduction of a System of Police, are honourable Proofs of your Wisdom, your Moderation, and your Prudence.

His Majesty beholds, with the highest Satisfaction, the Zeal and Loyalty of His People of Ireland; and I have His Majesty's express Commands to assure you of the most cordial Returns of His Royal Favour and Paternal Affection.

I have the deepest Sense of every Obligation to confirm my Attachment to this Kingdom; and it will be the constant Object of my Administration, and the warmest Impulse of my Heart, to forward the Success of her Interests, and to promote the Prosperity of the Empire.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by His Grace's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,
