

Majesty from all Insults and Attempts of the like Kind; and we truly and sincerely wish, that your Majesty may have a long and happy Reign over all your Subjects.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be affixed, this Twenty-first Day of August, 1786.

By Order of Court,
Martin Wilkinson, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled, do beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late horrid and alarming Attempt upon your Sacred Life: We humbly offer up our most grateful Thanks to Heaven for protecting your Royal Person in that Moment of impending Danger; and we fervently pray that the same Almighty Arm which hath hitherto guarded your Majesty may continue to watch over you, and that you may reign long, very long and happy, in the Hearts of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Eighteenth Day of August, 1786-

Wm. Yelder, Mayor.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Orford, Steward of that Corporation: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Commonalty of your ancient Borough of Great Yarmouth, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to express our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your providential and happy Escape from the late alarming Attempt upon your Majesty's Sacred Person.

May the Divine Providence be ever watchful over, and guard your Majesty from all future Danger, and preserve to us the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, by a long, very long Continuance of your Majesty's happy Reign.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the Sixteenth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

The following Address of the Dean, High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgeses and Burgeses of the City of Westminster, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Rochester, Dean of Westminster, attended by James Sayer, Esq; Deputy Steward, Samuel Potts, John Even, Robert Mackreth, Mathew Wiggins and Samuel Hadley, Esqrs. Burgeses, Mr. Marfaut, Mr. Groves, Mr. Wood, Mr. Snow, Mr. Evans, Mr. Abingdon, Mr. Lucas, Mr. Glanville, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Martindale, and Mr. Richardson, Assistants, Mr. Loton, High Constable, and Mr. Jackson, Town Clerk, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean, High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgeses and Burgeses of the City of Westminster, humbly approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on the providential Deliverance of your Majesty from the violent atrocious Attempt lately made on your Royal Person.

An Attempt so repugnant to the Principles and Feelings of your Subjects, so destructive of the Prosperity of their Country, and so painful to the sincere and dutiful Love they cherish in their Breasts for your Majesty's Royal Person and eminent Virtue, could alone proceed from one whose Mind was rendered incapable of knowing the Blessings we enjoy.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of Gratitude for the true Happiness we experience under the Protection of your Majesty's Government, we beg Leave to offer our most fervent Prayers for its peaceful and permanent Continuance, to which alone that Happiness can be ascribed; and we sincerely trust in the Goodness of Divine Providence, that your Majesty may long live the King and Father of an united, loyal and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-third Day of August, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

By Order of the Court,
John Jackson, Town-Clerk.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford, has been presented to the King by Matthew Rugeley, Esq; Sheriff, attended by the Earl of Upper Ossory, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, Major-General Sir George Osborn, Bart. and Samuel Whitbread, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late dreadful Attempt upon your Sacred Person.

While we reflect with Awe upon the Consequences of such an Act, and consider the Occasion which was taken to perpetrate the horrid Deed, we cannot but rejoice, for the Dignity of Human Nature, that the Attempt proceeded not from any malevolent Disaffection to your Majesty's Government, but from the wild Suggestions of Infamy.

Impelled therefore by Motives of Gratitude for this gracious Interposition of Providence, we humbly offer up our Prayers that your Reign may be long and prosperous; being truly sensible we derive from your Majesty those Blessings, which peculiarly distinguish the Happiness of a free and grateful People.

Mat. Rugeley, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, has been presented to the King by Charles Robinson, Esq; Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council
