

that Corporation, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-House of Deptford Strond.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, beg Permission sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence, in preserving your Majesty's valuable Life in the late Moment of Danger.

Truly sensible of the Blessings your Subjects enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's Government, and warmly attached as we are to your Royal Person and Virtues, we most ardently join in earnest Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty may continue to reign, with uninterrupted Felicity, in the Hearts of a faithful and affectionate People, to the utmost Extent of Years and Glory.

Given under our Common Seal, this Seventh Day of September, 1786.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newbury, has been presented to the King by George Vansittart, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Berks, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Newbury, firmly attached to your Majesty's Sacred Person, and impressed with a due Sense of the great and inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Government, most humbly presume to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on your late happy Escape from the Danger of Assassination; and at the same Time that we reflect with Horror and Disdain on the Attempt made upon your Majesty's Life, we cannot but feel the greatest Comfort and Satisfaction in finding that the Hand of Infamy alone guided such an Attempt.

We beg Leave also to tender our most humble, and yet most sincere Assurances of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to implore the Goodness of Divine Providence to protect you in all Dangers, and to preserve to us the invaluable Life of our most gracious Sovereign, that he may long and prosperously reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

[Signed by 104 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Compton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings we daily enjoy under your wise and auspicious Government, humbly beg Leave to lay at your Feet our sincere Congratulations on the providential Preservation of your Majesty's Sacred Person from the late alarming Attempt against your Majesty's Life.

The Reflection on so atrocious an Attempt, and the dreadful Consequences your Kingdoms would have experienced had the horrid Design been actually perpetrated, loudly call upon us to offer our unfeigned Thanks for this Interference of Divine Providence; and we beg Leave to add our fervent Prayers for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over us, and that your Royal Offspring may convey those Blessings we now enjoy to the latest Posterity.

[Signed by 208 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the Town of Appleby, has been presented to the King by the Honourable John Leveion Gower, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the ancient Corporation of Appleby, (at their Town-Hall assembled,) highly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's Government, humbly beg Leave to present their dutiful Congratulations upon the late providential Escape of your Majesty's most valuable and Sacred Life from an Attempt which had nearly been attended with Consequences most fatal to the Nation, and of course would have involved your loyal and dutiful Members and Inhabitants of this Corporation, with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, in a Scene of the utmost Calamity and Distress.

Convinced of your Majesty's paternal Care and Affection for the Welfare of all your Subjects, the Members and Inhabitants of this Corporation will pray to the Almighty, that you and your most amiable Consort may enjoy every Blessing that this World can admit of, and that the same Hand of Providence which manifested Itself so conspicuously on this Occasion, may protect you and your Family under all Difficulties and Distresses, and that you may long live to reign over a free, happy and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the Fourth Day of September, in the Twenty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ashburton, has been presented to the King by Sir Robert Palk, Bart, and Robert Mackreth, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ashburton, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on your late providential Deliverance from the dire Assault of an insane Assassin.

Words cannot convey an adequate Idea of the extreme Horror we feel at this most atrocious Attempt on the Life of your most Sacred Person, and of our Thankfulness to the great Disposer of all Events for His gracious Interposition so signally manifested on this Occasion,
