

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, has been presented to the King by Edwin Jeynes, Esq; Mayor, attended by John Hope, Esq; Sheriff, and John Webb, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly in-treat your Majesty to accept our faithful Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the Danger which lately threatened your Royal Person, and to join in the General Expression of Gratitude to the Divine Being for the Preservation of your Majesty's most precious Life from the Hand of Infamy.

Truly sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's Government, and that the Welfare of this Country is intimately connected with your Majesty's Personal Safety, we humbly pray that the same good Providence which has so lately guarded your Majesty's Sacred Person, may continue Its Gracious and Almighty Protection, and that your Majesty and your Descendants may ever reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolsey, in in the said City, the Eighteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

The following Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common Council, Freeburgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, has been presented to the King by Sir Edmund Aspleck, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament, and William Mayhew, Esq; High Steward and Recorder, of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Freeburgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's Escape from the daring Attempt lately made to assassinate your Royal Person. May the All-powerful Hand of Providence protect your Majesty from every wicked Attempt and traitorous Conspiracy, and preserve you long to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal and affectionate People; and may the many valuable Blessings we now enjoy under your Majesty's Government, be in as ample Manner experienced by our Posterity under the Government of your Majesty's Royal Descendants till Time shall be no more.

In Testimony whereof we the said High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council and Freeburgesses have put our Common Seal, and we the said Inhabitants have set our Names, this Fourth Day of September, 1786.

[Signed by 194 Persons.]

The following Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, has been presented to the King by James Dawkins and George Fludyer, Esquires, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, impressed with the highest Sense of Duty and Respect, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Deliverance from the late barbarous Attempt made on your Majesty's Person by a mad Assassin.

We look on your Majesty's Preservation as a signal Mercy to these Kingdoms in general, and we sincerely wish that your Majesty may long reign over an happy, brave, and free People, and that your Majesty's Life may be as full of Glory as of Days.

[Signed by 97 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton, has been presented to the King by Charles Chamberlayne, Esq; Mayor of the said Borough, and Captain in His Majesty's Navy, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late Attempt made on your precious Life; a Life so highly valuable and important to this Nation. We return, with Heart-felt Gratitude, our unfeigned Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of Events, for His gracious Preservation of it, and humbly beseech Him to grant, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over these Realms, and make the Happiness of your People.

[Signed by 39 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, has been presented to the King by John Calcraft, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of your antient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, with Hearts filled with Joy and Satisfaction beyond Expression, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's signal and providential Escape from the late alarming and atrocious Attempt upon your Sacred Person.

We shall only add our most fervent Prayers, humbly beseeching the Divine Providence long to preserve your Majesty's Life, and that your Majesty's Reign, under