

Glory, Sir, results from Danger. It is in Situations of Surprise and Alarm, that the genuine and noble Qualities of exalted Minds are eminently displayed and distinguished. The collected Firmness and Composure with which your Majesty met the horrid Attack, and the Tenderness and Compassion exerted in the same critical Moment for the wretched Assailant, are recent Proofs of that Magnanimity and Benevolence, which have ever characterised your Majesty, and endeared you to the Hearts of a brave and generous People.

Whilst all Ranks and Orders of Men are zealously professing these Sentiments, it may not misbecome us, Sir, to bear Testimony to your more private and personal Excellencies. Courts and Palaces have rarely been the Scenes of Abstemiousness and Temperance. That your Majesty, amidst all the Incitements to Gratification and Indulgence, should steadily persevere in an unexampled Forbearance, is at once an upbraiding Remonstrance against the unhappily prevailing Luxury, and the strongest Security for the Preservation of your Health, for the long Continuance of your inestimable Life, and consequently of the national Happiness.

May the merciful Hand of Providence be ever extended over you, for protecting your Sacred Person from Outrage and Violence! We rely with perfect Confidence on your Majesty's habitual and determined Virtue, as the surest human Means of averting from you the ordinary Calamities which are incident to our Nature.

College of Physicians,
Oct. 5, 1786.

J. R. Reynolds, Deputy Register.

The following Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of the Isle of Mann, having been transmitted by Richard Dawson, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor of the said Island, to the Right Hon. Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of the Isle of Mann.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of your Island of Mann, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest and warmest Congratulations on your most happy Escape from the daring and outrageous Attempt which lately threatened your invaluable Life. The signal Advantages which this Island derives from being placed more immediately under your Majesty's gracious Protection, and the repeated and recent Instances of your Majesty's kind and condescending Attention to its true Interests, inspire us with the most lively Gratitude and Affection; and we cannot but felicitate ourselves upon the providential Preservation of a Sovereign, the Blessings of whose mild and equitable Government all His People equally participate.

At the same Time we are happy, in the full Conviction, that while we are testifying our own Joy on the Deliverance of these Kingdoms from one of the most dreadful Calamities, and offering up our ardent Prayers for the long Continuance of your benign Administration, we are not only expressing the Sentiments of the Inhabitants of this Isle, but joining the general Voice of your Subjects in every other Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

Richard Dawson, Lieut. Gov.

Wadsworth Bishp.

Tho. Moore.

John Quayle.

By Order of the House of Keys,

John Taubman, Speaker.

The Three following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Citizens, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty, on your late providential Escape from so horrid an Attempt made on your Royal Person.

Truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy, we most fervently pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a free and united People.

[Signed by 87 Persons.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, in the West Riding of the County of York, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence in Testimony of the Joy we feel on the providential Preservation of your Majesty's Life from the Danger to which it was lately exposed.

The Blessings we derive from your Majesty's mild and virtuous Government make the Continuance of it the first Object of our Wishes; but when we reflect that the Atrocity of the Attempt on your Majesty's Life might have justified more sudden and summary Proceedings, yet your Majesty's Regard for the Privileges of your People was greater than either Apprehension or Repentment, our ordinary Admiration and Gratitude would be inadequate Expressions of our Sentiments on this Occasion.

That the same Omnipotent Being, who has preserved, may be pleased also graciously to prolong your Majesty's Life; and that we may continue many Years to be blessed by your Majesty's Government, and instructed by your shining Example, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

[Signed by 978 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Principal and others resident Burgesses of the Corporate Borough of Kidwelly, do most humbly solicit your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of our cordial and unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's late happy Preservation from so execrable and horrid an Attempt as ever the Enemy of Mankind suggested into the Heart of a Woman to perpetrate against your Royal Life and Dignity, a Life invaluable to your Amiable Consort, to all the illustrious Branches of the Royal Family, and, if possible, more so to all your faithful Subjects. This miraculous Deliverance from the iniquitous Purposes of an abandoned Wretch, we attribute to the all-wise Interposition of Providence, which