St. James's, October 31.

THE Five following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon, Vicars General and Clergy of the Isle and Diocese of Man.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Archdeacon, Vicars General and Clergy of the Isle of Man, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Joy and most sincere Congratulations for the late providential Preservation of your Life from the violent Assault of a frantic Assassins.

Your Majesty's fatherly Protection of the Civil and Religious Liberties of this Isle and your other Dominions, your exemplary Piety, your liberal Bounty to the Church, of which we, even in this remote Diocese are duly sensible, your constant Practice of the various princely and private Virtues displayed in so high a Station and eminent Degree, as they render your Majesty's Life in this Age most dear and valuable, so the Loss of it must have affected your loving Subjects with the deepest Distress, and deprived Religion and Virtue of their brightest Pattern.

Having already returned our public and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, for this late signal Instance of His Goodness to these Nations, so shall we ever continue fervently to pray that the last may be the only Attempt upon a Life of so great Importance, and that your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy and glorious.

Bishop's Court, Isle of Man,
Sept. 29, 1786.

[ Signed by the Bishop and 18 of the Clergy. ]

[ Price Seven-Pence. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders assembled in the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, with unfeigned Satisfaction, embrace the earliest Opportunity we have had of presenting our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the desperate Attempt lately made on your Sacred Life.

We devoutly acknowledge the Hand of Providence in your Majesty's Preservation, and have returned our Thanks to Almighty God for His gracious Interposition in your Majesty's Behalf.

Happy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, it is our daily Prayer, that your valuable Life may long be preserved for a Blessing to the People over whom you reign; that while in this World you may enjoy the richest Communications of the Divine Favour, and in the World to come may, through the Merits of our Saviour, receive that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

Subscribed, in our Name and Presence, by our Moderator,

James Hunter.

Perth, October 18, 1786.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and Heretors of the County of Ross, met at their Annual Meeting at Tain, upon the Eleventh of October, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and Heretors of the County of Ross, now met in our Annual Michaelmas Meeting, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with our most earnest and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the desperate
