THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk, beg Leave, with due Respect, to approach the Throne, to express our unfeigned Joy, and offer up our warmest Congratulations upon the providential Escape of your Majesty from the Hands of a daring and infatuated Assassin.

We gladly come forward to testify our Duty and sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, under which we enjoy so many important Blessings; and that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a loyal and happy Nation is our most earnest and fervent Prayer to the Almighty.

Signed by Order, and in Presence of the Meeting, at Selkirk, this Twenty-fifth Day of October, 1786.
