To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with the deepest Sense of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, we humbly beg Leave to express the Effusions of our Joy in our most sincere Congratulations on your blessed Escape from an Attempt big with every melancholy Consequence to the Happiness and Welfare of these Kingdoms.

We rest in the full Confidence that the same Providence which has lately so manifestly displayed itself in the Protection of your Sacred Person, will grant a long Continuance of your most valuable Life, to the Prayers of your faithful and affectionate People.

Given under the Seal of the said City of Carlisle, the Third Day of October, in the Twenty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Joseph Senhouse, Mayor.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Queenberry, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, met at Dumfries the Eighteenth Day of October, 1786.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Dumfries embrace this first Opportunity of our meeting together to congratulate your Majesty upon your Deliverance from the late imminent Danger. Your Majesty's Preservation from the daring Attempt that was made upon your most valuable Life, from a Quarter of which you could have no Apprehension, fills us with Gratitude to that Good Providence to which it is to be ascribed.

That your Majesty's Life may still be, in a peculiar Manner, the Care of that God who giveth Salvation to Kings; and that your Majesty and your Illustrious House may long reign over a free, a loyal, a pious, and a happy People, are the Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Subscribed in our Name, Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Heron, Moderator.
