London, December 26, 1786.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,
With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, established in Ireland in the Year 1773, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Christmas last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, E. G. Boldero and Brasier, Bankers, No. 77, Lombard-street.

And also the Subscribers to the Life Annuities, established in Ireland in the Year 1775, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity due at Christmas last, at the same Place, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 9th of January to the 12th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 16th of January to the 19th ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 23d of January to the 26th ditto, both Days inclusive, and from the 30th ditto to the 2d of February, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of a Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class; and as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to the Deputy Vice-Treasurer, Treasury Chamber, Dublin, or to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, E. G. Boldero and Brasier.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same, for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

WHEREAS the Partnership which formerly subsisted between Joseph Fry, Henry Fry and Stephen Couchman, of Worship-street, Upper Moorfields, London, Printers, was dissolved by mutual Consent on the 31st of December, 1782: The said Business from that Time has been and continues to be carried on by Joseph Fry and Stephen Couchman only, under the Firm of Fry and Couchman.

Witness the Hand of Joseph Fry in Bristol, this 30th Day of December, 1786.

Joseph Fry.

Witness the Hands of Henry Fry and Stephen Couchman, in London, this 2d of January, 1787.

Henry Fry.

Stephen Couchman.

THE Creditors of John Prife Gwinnett, Esq; late a Captain in the Land Service of the Honourable East India Company, in Bengal, and who died there in or about the Year 1777, are hereby requested to send an Account of their Demands, with the Dates and Particulars of the Securities, if any they hold for the same, to Messrs. Bolton and Maltby, of Basinghall-street, London, Solicitors for the Administrator of the said John Prife Gwinnett.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Fortescue against Gregor, the Creditors of John Fortescue, late of Pensance, in the County of Cornwall, Esq; are, personally or by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their Debts before William Weller Pepys, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-inn, Chancery-lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
