THE Commissioners of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales's Treasury, hereby give Notice to the several Creditors who have delivered a State of their Demands upon His Royal Highness to the 5th of July, 1786, (agreeable to Advertisements, with Requisitions to that Effect, published in October and November last,) that a Payment of Nine per Cent. upon the Amount of such Debts will commence on Tuesday the 24th Instant: And to avoid Confusion, the Parties concerned are desired to observe, that they will severally receive a Direction on what Days they are respectively wished to attend.

Whitehall, April 10, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Wednesday Morning last, the 4th Instant, an anonymous incendiary Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was found under the Door of the Dwelling-House of Mr. Thomas Brown, Clothier, at Newbury, in the County of Berks:—

“ Gentlemen Clothiers I A Weaver Am Determined Except This Combination Is Quite Void,
 “ And The Weavers Have Work As Usual, Without Working Under Price, in One Thing or the Other. As For Shalloons We are agreeable To work Them At the Usual Price Or Any Thing Else You May Find Us To do, Gentlemen would you Think It a Crime in any one Living, To stand In His Own Defence Against His Enemy, You Gentlemen Are Agreed To Beat Down The Price of the Weavers Work, The Price of the weavers Work is already so Low They Cannot Get A livelywood like Almost any Other Trade, why should you wish To starve Us Quite, Yours Lives As well as Ours are Not Insured One Moment, Neither Can You Carry Your Ill Got Treasure with you Into The Next Life, As For This life I Look upon It as Nothing in Respect of The life
 “ To
