Hague, September 25,

The States of Holland having agreed on Saturday last to write a Letter to her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange, inviting her to return to the Hague, and expressing their earnest Desire to grant her Royal Highness Satisfaction for the Insult offered her near Schenchoven, in the Manner demanded by his Prussian Majesty, her Royal Highness accordingly arrived here from Utrecht, Yesterday, about Three o'Clock, and was received with the most joyful Acclamations of all Ranks of People. The Deputations of the several States, and of the principal Departments, waited on her Royal Highness immediately after her Arrival, and every possible Mark of Honour and Distinction was shewn her.

To-day her Royal Highness received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, the Deputies of the different Towns, &c. This Evening she had a Drawing-Room, and at Night the Hague was entirely illuminated.

The Regiment of Dragoon Guards, and the Second Battalion of the Swiss Guards marched into the Hague on Sunday. The Garrison is now complete, and composed of the Troops always quartered in this Residence; and Peace and good Order begin to be happily re-established.

The Duke of Brunswick removed his Head Quarters on Saturday from Gouda to Alphen; and Yesterday his advanced Posts moved forward as far as Amstelween and Oudekerke, within four Miles of Amsterdam. General Gaudi with his Division has attacked and taken Nieuwensteuys, with 800 Prisoners, 10 Pieces of Cannon, and 60 Officers.
