

the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the above-mentioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

Whitehall, January 4, 1788.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 19th Day of December last, a Barn belonging to the Reverend John Savage, situate at Tetbury, in the County of Gloucester, was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, whereby the same was in Part consumed, together with a Quantity of Wood, Straw, and other Effects therein:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Barn as above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. Savage doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, and the Principal Inhabitants of Tetbury aforesaid do hereby promise the further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, (to be paid by the Bailiff of the said Town) to any Person making such Discovery as above mentioned, (except as is before excepted) to be respectively paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

ALL Persons who have any Claim or Demands on the Estate or Effects of James Ting, late of Newgate-market, London, Veal-factor, deceased, are desired forthwith to send an Account thereof to his Widow and Administratrix, or to Mess. Young and Mitton, Attornies, Doctors-commons, London; and all Persons indebted to the said Estate are desired to pay same as above, without further Notice.
