St. James's, November 15.

THE last Account received here from Windsor of the State of His Majesty's Health, dated at Ten o'Clock this Morning, is, "That His Majesty slept Six Hours last Night, and is a little better this Morning."

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th of November, 1788,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy-Council.

IT is this Day ordered by their Lordships, that His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare the Form of a Prayer to Almighty God for the Recovery of His Majesty from the severe Illness with which It hath pleased the Divine Providence to afflict Him.

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent Number of Copies of the said Form of Prayer, that the same may be forthwith sent round, and read in the several Churches of England, and Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 13th of November, 1788.

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy-Council.

IT is this Day ordered by their Lordships, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, Cap. 7. intituled, "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in the Exercise of their Religious Worship, and in the Use of the Liturgy of the Church of England; and for repealing the Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled, An Act against irregular Baptisms and Marriages," do, at some Time during the Exercise of the Divine Service in such respective Church, Congregation, or Assembly, put up their Prayers to Almighty God for the Recovery of His Majesty from the severe Illness with which It hath pleased the Divine Providence to afflict Him.

Steph. Cottrell.
