SOCIETY.—NEWBURY, BERKS.

The Members, Annuitants and Claimants of the Laudable Annuity Society lately held at the Three Tuns, in Newbury, in the County of Berks, are desired to take Notice, That in consequence of the Powers and Authorities given to the Treasurers and Committee by the General Meeting of the Members, held the 4th Day of June, 1787, and by the Advice and Direction of Counsel consulted on the Occasion, they have agreed to apportion to each Person an equitable Share of the present Capital; the Particulars of which will be communicated to them by applying to John Blagrove, Attorney at Law, in Speenhamland, near Newbury, with whom a Consent or Approbation of such intended Division is now left to be signed; and that as soon as every Member, Annuitant and Claimant have, by themselves or their Attornies lawfully authorized, signed the same, they will immediately make the intended Division: And unless every Member, Annuitant and Claimant shall as aforesaid sign such Consent or Approbation, on before the 25th Day of March next coming, the said Treasurers and Committee intend to apply to a Court of Equity for their Indemnity.

By Order of the Treasurers and Committee,

Speenhamland,
Feb. 3, 1789. JOHN BLAGROVE.

To the Creditors of Charles Floyer, heretofore of the Town of Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth, Gentleman, deceased.

IN pursuance of the Directions contained in the last Will and Testament of Blanch Floyer, late of the said Town of Abergavenny, who was the Widow of the said Charles Floyer, and who departed this Life on the 20th Day of August, 1786, Notice is hereby given, that the said Blanch Floyer did, in her last Will and Testament, recite, that her said late Husband did, in the Year 1748, enter into a Composition with several of his Creditors to pay them after the Rate of Ten Shillings in the Pound of their respective Debts; that her Intention and Desire were to charge certain Estates by her said Will devised, with the Payment of the remaining Ten Shillings in the Pound, to such of the Creditors of her said late Husband, who executed a certain Deed of Composition, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1748, and thereby agreed to accept a Composition of Ten Shillings in the Pound, in full of their Debts, in entire Exclusion of such of her said late Husband's Creditors who refused to accept such Composition; and, after reciting that the said Charles Floyer departed this Life some Time in the Year 1753, the said Testatrix did, in and by her said Will, and a Codicil thereto, devise all her Messuages, Lands and Tenements, situate in the Town and Parish of Abergavenny, the Parish of Llantillo, Pertholey, or elsewhere, in the said County of Monmouth, unto and to the Use of Fowler Walker, of Lincoln's-inn, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; and John Roberts, of the said Town of Abergavenny, Esq; and Robert Morgan Kinsey, of the same Place, Gentleman, their Heirs and Assigns upon Trust (among other Trusts therein-mentioned) to raise and levy such Sum of Money, and no more, as the Remainder of the original Debts due to such of the Creditors of her said Husband who accepted the said Composition of Ten Shillings in the Pound, amounting to, viz. the principal Sum which the remaining Ten Shillings in the Pound unpaid of such Debts should amount to, at the Time of her Decease, with Interest for the same, to be computed from the Time of her Decease, in such Manner as by her said Will is directed, and should thereupon invest the Money so raised, and the Dividends and Interest thereof, in such Manner as is directed by her said Will, until it should be decided to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, whether and how far the said Estates were or should be in Law or Equity liable to the Payment of the Debts due from the said Testatrix's said late Husband, to such of his Specialty Creditors as did not accept of the said Composition, and should, when as soon as it should sufficiently appear or be decided to the Satisfaction of the said Trustees, that the said Estates were or should be liable to the Payment of such Debts of the said Creditors, who did not accede to the said Composition, or any of them; then upon Trust, by and out of the said Trust Monies, to pay to such Creditors such Sums, so far as the said Trust Monies would extend, towards Discharge of their said Debts and Interest, as they should appear or be adjudged, or decreed to be intitled in Law or Equity, to recover out of the same Estates, and no more; and should, after Payment thereof, pay the Residue of the said Trust Monies to the Creditors, Parties to the said Deed of Composition, or their Personal Representatives, rateably in Proportion to their respective Debts. And in case the said Specialty Creditors, who had not acceded to the said Composition, should appear not to be intitled to recover any of their said Debts out of the said Estates, then to pay the Whole of the said Trust Monies to and among the Creditors who had acceded thereto, or their Personal Representatives, rateably and in Proportion to their respective Debts, it being by the said Will declared to be the Intent of the said Testatrix that the Specialty Creditors of her said Husband, who did not accept of the said Composition, or their Representatives, should be paid no more out of the said Trust Monies than they would be intitled to recover at Law or in Equity out of the said Estates.

And all such Persons as conceive themselves to be interested in the said Devise are hereby desired to send an Account of their respective Demands to the said Robert Morgan Kinsey, at Abergavenny aforesaid, of whom further Particulars may be had respecting the Will of the said Testatrix.

Exeter, February 10, 1789.

Whereas William Brand in the Beginning of November 1778, sailed from Topsham, in the Port of Exeter, in the True Briton Privateer of that Place, commanded by William Baker, and has not since been heard of: Whoever, therefore, can give any Information respecting the said William Brand, whether he is living or dead, and if living where he resides, or if dead where and when he died and was buried, and will give an immediate Account thereof to Mess. Woolcombe and Pidlley, Attornies, in Exeter, shall be handsomely rewarded for their Trouble.
