We acknowledge, with every Impression of the most fervent Thankfulness; the Goodness of Di-Majefty to the Wiftes of your faithful Subjects, and humbly fupplicate that the Continuance of your Majefty's Health may long fecure to us the full Poffedion of those Bleffings which, under your Majesty's Government, we derive from the unimpaired Energy of our excellent Conflitution. By Order of the General Meeting;

Harry Houfe, Chairman.

Crown and Anchor, Wednefday, March 18, 1789:

[Delivered by Harry House. Esq; accompanies by the Right Honourable Charles James Fox and Lord John Townschend, Representatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kent, now affembled at the Lent Affizes at Maiditone.

Most Grácious Sovereign,

WE, your Majefty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Kent, beg Leave to approach your Majefty to express our heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Recovery from the alarming Illnefs with which you have been lately afflicted; an Event which fills us, in common with all your Majeity's faithful Subjects, with the fincereft Joy; and to affure your Majefty of our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Perfon and Family.

That your Majefty, fo happily reftored by the Bleffing of Divine Providence to the Exercise of your Royal Authority, may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a free and loval People, is our most fincere and fervent Prayer.

Jas. Bond, Sheriff.

[Delivered by James Bond, E/q; Sheriff, attended by the Honourable Charles Marsham and Filmor Honeywood, Elq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and of a very numerous and most refpectable Body of Gentlemen assembled at the Affizes at Thetford the 19th of March, 1789.

Moll Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majefty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, with Hearts filled with Joy, to offer our fincere Congratulations on your Majefty's happy Recovery from your late Illnefs; an Event which, at the fame Inflant, hath diffi-pated the general Gloom which had pervaded all Ranks of People, and hath also reitored Energy to our Laws, and Activity to the various Branches of the Legiflature of these Kingdoms.

You have tafted of the bitter Cup of Adverfity, Sire! on a fick Bed undifinayed; a falurary Draught to truly great Men offered by Heaven to it's Favourites 26 a Trial of their Conflancy and Refignation to it's immutable Decrees. May you Rengmation to it's immutable Decrees. May you henceforward (and it is the fincere With of our Hearts) continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health during a Series of happy Years: Your forious Hearts employed (as heretofore) in promoting the Welfare of your Subjects, and in planning wife Regulations for the general Properity of the Regulations for the general Properity of the Regulations is affectionate Endearments of your livened by the affectionate. Endearments of your beloved Confort, our Gracious Queen ! The Example and Ornament of her Sex, furrounded by a splendid Train of Princes, your joint Offspring, whose Virtues and eminent Qualities justly entitle them to the Applause and Admiration of the British Nation; and when it shall please the Di-vine Providence to call you hence, after a long and glorious Reign, may you enjoy that Beatitude which is referved for those who, in exalted Stations, have, like your Majefty, passed their Lives in uninterrupted Exertions for the Benefit of those entruited to their Care.

[Delivered by the Honourable Henry Hobart, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the City of Norwich.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majefty's most dutiful Subjects, the Judges, Advocates and Proctors of your Majefty's Ecclefiaffical and Admiralty Courts, humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on the Reestablishment of your Majesty's Health.

Fully fenfible of the Importance of a Life, during which all the Bleffings of a mild and equal Government have been uniformly enjoyed by every Deicription of your Majefty's Subjects, we cannot but ardently rejoice, that the Providence of God has averted a Calamity which threatened the Security of our publick Happiness; and we at the same Time feel the most cordial Satisfaction in reflecting, that the fame Event which affures to your Subjects the Stability of their national Welfare, reflores your Ma-jefty to the Possefilion of that domestick Feiicity, to which your Majesty's many private and personal Virtues have given you to diffinguished a Title.

That your Majesty's publick Conduct may long continue to protect, and that your private Conduct may long continue to adorn this Country, is the ardent prayer of your Majefly's most dutiful Subjects.

[Delivered by Sir William Wynne, Dean of the Arches, Cc.]

'To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovercign,

WE, your Majelty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majefly with our warment Congratulations on your Majefly's Recovery.

We bleft the Divine Providence for giving Succcfs to the Means made Use of to effect this happy Event; happy to our Gracious Queen and Royal Family: Happy to a grateful and affectionate People: Kappy to every Foreign State in Alliance with these Kingdoms.

The Influence of your Majefty's just and mild Government extends beyond your own Domi-nions, and is of powerful Effect to conciliate the Animofities of contending Nations.

May the fame Providence, which hath hitherto guided and protected your Sacred Majefly, conti-tinue its Bleffings on your Health and Government. Long may you reign over an obedient and faithfol People, Sudious to demonstrate their Zeal and Attachment to their Sovereign, in the fleady Support of a glorious Conditution, revered by all wife and good Subjects, who are auxious for the Prefervation of their Monarch's Life, and for the perfonal Exercise of His Pover, and firm in a manly Defence of the cstablished Government of this Country.

[Delivered by John Fleming, E/q; one of the Reprefentatives in Parliament for the faid Town.]