Concern which all your Subjects expressed during your Majefty's fevere Indisposition, and the un-teigned Joy and Satisfaction which every where a ppeared on your happy Recovery, will afford your Majefty Matter of true Confolation, as this is the best Return, however inadequate, which a loyal People can make to your Majelty for your unwearied Pains through a long Courie of Years, in every Period of which your have proved yourfelf to be the Father of your People. We fhould be greatly wanting in Duty and Refacet, if we omitted this Opportunity of mentioning how much we reverence your Royal Con-fort, who, on this trying Occasion, gave fo many Proofs of Her Affection, Goodners and Prudence, as cannot fail to endear our Gracious Queen to all your Majesty's Subjects, and transmit Her Name, in Characters of Honour, to the lateft Pofferity, We will detain your Majefty but one Moment longer, whilst we pour forth our most ardent Prayers and Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to reign in Health and Prosperity over a grateful People, and that they may learn from your pious Example, that a firm Reliance on an over-ruling Providence is the only folid Comfort in this Life, even to the greatest and most powerful among Men! [Transmitted by the Earl of Berkeley, Lord Lisute-nant, and the Honourable George Berkeley, and Thomas Masters, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moft Excellent Majefly,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy and other the Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subyv jects, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy and other the Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, affembled in the Guildhall of the faid City, with all Humility beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty on the Reftoration of your Health, and your Re-turn to the Exercise of your Regal Authority. It is in the Nature of Man to become more fenfible of the greatest Bleslings of Providence when they are threatened to be withdrawn. We need not therefore to diffemble, that deeply impressed, as we have ever been, with a grateful Senfe of the Benefits which we enjoy under your Majefty's Go-vernment, the Danger, which we lately appre-hended, of being deprived of your Paternal Care, bath given page for to the Lorent hath given new Force to the Impression, and united, with the Loyalty of Subjects, the tender Affections of Children. The fame Sentiments, we are perfuaded, pervade the Breatts of all good Men amongit us; and while they animate our Prayers for the Continuance of your Majefty's most valuable Life, the Demonstrations of dutiful Attachment to your Perfon and Government, called forth by the happy Occafion of your Recovery, will, we truth, remain a Pledge to your Majefty, and to your Royal Potterity, that the fame public and private Virtues, which adorn your Majefty's Character, will ever engage the Love and Veneration of a free and enlightened People.

It is, we hope, without depaiting from that Modely of Obedience which belongs to us as Citizens and Subjects, that we prefume to lay be-fore your Majetty our humble Teffimony to the Wifdom of your two Houfes of Parliament ; who, in providing for the Exigencies of the State during your Majefty's late Indifpolition, manifelled that equal Regard to the Perion of the Sovereign, the Honour
