

Leave to join in sincere Congratulations on this joyful Event; and while we offer these our Congratulations, it is most incumbent on us to be grateful to the Almighty for this His Mercy, and for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's wife and mild Government.

*James Campbell, Baillie.
Hugh Watt, Baillie.*

Council Chamber,
Irvine, March 24, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir Archibald Edmonstone, Bart. Representative in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please you to permit the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, to approach your Majesty with their most sincere and dutiful Congratulations on the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

We joined in the most fervent Addresses to Heaven, in the Time of your Majesty's Affliction, and have now the most heartfelt Gratification in participating the universal Joy on your Recovery.

Suffer us also to add, we rejoice in the Satisfaction your Majesty feels in perceiving that during the critical and interesting Period of your Majesty's Absence from Government, the Ministers of your Choice conducted the Affairs of your Empire to the general Approbation of your People.

May your Majesty long rule over us in Health, Happiness and Prosperity, until at length it shall please the All-wise Disposer of human Events, who has now restored you to the Prayers of your affectionate Subjects, to take you from an earthly to an heavenly Crown.

May the Throne of these Realms continue to be filled by one of your Illustrious House through the remaining Ages, and the Sceptre be ever swayed with the same Justice and Mercy that have so eminently characterized your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by Richard Maul, Esq. Mayor, Wm. Blandy, Henry Deane and John Deane, Esqrs. attended by Francis Annesley and Richard Aldworth Neville, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Wilton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

SENSIBLE of the real Benefits Providence hath granted us, by restoring your Majesty to Health, we, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Wilton, desire to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery.

We cannot but be deeply impressed with the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equal Government our Liberty is preserved, our Property protected; your Majesty's Life, is therefore inestimable to us as Men and as Subjects.

United by Love and Duty to your Majesty, we earnestly hope you may long reign over the British Empire; beloved by every Rank of your Majesty's Subjects, and enjoy every public and private Blessing.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, this 26th Day of March, in the 29th Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord Herbert, and the Right Honourable William Gerrard Hamilton, Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, and Author of all Good, and with the most lively Sense of your Majesty's mild Government, and unwearied Attention to the public Welfare, we, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, most cordially join in that heartfelt Satisfaction and Gratitude which have pervaded every Rank of your People on the Recovery of your Majesty's Health; and we now presume not only to congratulate you upon that happy Event, but also upon the unquestionable Proofs which have been given of Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of more general Exultation than was ever expressed in this Country on any former Occasion.

We cannot suppress the Satisfaction we feel in considering the Joy which this Event must have occasioned to your Majesty's Royal Consort, whose many amiable Virtues have on all Occasions excited the Love, Admiration and Respect of your Majesty's Subjects.

We are sensible that we cannot have a more pleasing Prospect than that which is afforded us by those Maxims of free and equitable Government which have distinguished the Illustrious House of Brunswick, and have eminently contributed to render Britain one of the most exalted Nations upon Earth.

We earnestly pray Almighty God may grant to your Majesty a long Continuance of Life and Health, accompanied with that peculiar Happiness which none but benevolent Princes can enjoy.

Signed by the Desire, and on the Behalf of a Meeting of the Inhabitants of Birmingham, convened by public Advertisements.

J. Carles, Chairman.

[Delivered by Mr. Carles, accompanied by Sir Robert Lawley, Bart. and Sir Geo. Augustus Wm. Shuckburgh, Barts. Representatives in Parliament for the County of Warwick.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, in the County of Essex, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and present our heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health. We adore the Divine Mercy, that our Prayers have so soon been turned into Thanksgivings. We felicitate ourselves and all our Fellow-Subjects, that we experience a renewed Sense of the Value of our most excellent Constitution, and of the Blessings enjoyed under a Reign so mild and equitable: And we acknowledge to your Majesty a Pride and Pleasure in the Reflection that an Event, so justly celebrated with every Demonstration of Public Joy, proclaims aloud to all the Kingdoms upon Earth, that the Sovereign of Great Britain is enthroned in the Hearts of a free, a loyal and a happy People.

That your Majesty may long enjoy this distinguished Glory, with the Accumulation of every Private and Public Felicity, shall be the continued Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted Subjects.

[Delivered by John Robinson, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Borough of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled,
