

your faithful and affectionate People, and to the personal Exercise of your Royal Authority.

We most humbly take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our firm and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and we sincerely hope that it may please the Almighty to extend His Blessing to this Nation, by prolonging your Majesty's Reign, by which the Religious and Civil Liberties, the Trade and Prosperity of this Kingdom, have hitherto been so effectually protected and secured.

[Delivered by John Courtenay and John Calvert, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, in the County of Salop, amongst the most zealous of your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, beg Leave humbly to offer our warmest and most cordial Congratulations upon your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe Illness, and at the same Time to renew our Assurances of unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family. Impressed with a due Sense of your Majesty's private and public Virtues, and feeling the most lively Gratitude for the many and great Advantages enjoyed by us under your mild and equitable Government, we earnestly implore the Supreme Ruler of all Things to continue to your Majesty the inestimable Blessing of Health, and to extend your Reign to a distant Period, in all Happiness and Prosperity, over a free, loyal and affectionate People.

Ludlow, March 31, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Hon. Lord Clive and Richard Payne Knight, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that Town.]

The humble and loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Brackley, in the County of Northampton.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Town of Brackley, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the joyful Event of your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late severe Indisposition.

We acknowledge, with all possible Thankfulness, the great Goodness of Divine Providence in thus attending to the Prayers of a loyal, affectionate and afflicted People, and in restoring your Majesty to the ardent Wishes of your faithful Subjects.

And we devoutly hope, that the Blessings of your Majesty's just and benevolent Government over us, and the bright Example of your many Virtues, may long continue to excite our Gratitude, and to promote the Peace and Prosperity of this Nation.

Signed on Behalf of himself, the Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Brackley,
Will. Hayton, Mayor.

Brackley, March 30, 1789.

[Delivered by Lieutenant-Colonel Egerton and Timothy Caswall, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Kinghorn.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave to express the deep Concern we felt on Account of your Majesty's Illness; and the Pleasure we now experience in joining the Congratulations which flow in from every Part of the Kingdom on the joyful Event of your Majesty's happy Recovery.

We could not help tracing the Kindness of Providence in Preserving the public Tranquility during the Affliction of your People; and with the most unfeigned Alacrity we now express our Thankfulness to the Divine Compassion, in so seasonably restoring your Majesty to the personal Exercise of your Royal Authority.

May your Majesty long continue to exercise that mild and virtuous Sway, which has already so much contributed to the Prosperity and Happiness of your own Subjects; and which we trust will exhibit to surrounding Nations a striking Example of that Height to which Righteousness can exalt a People.

Signed by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council,

Andrew Hamilton; Provost.

Kinghorn, March 26, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir Charles Preston, Bart. Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rotherham, beg Leave to Address your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on your perfect Recovery from your late alarming and severe Indisposition.

The Anxiety and Distress which appeared in every Rank of your Majesty's Subjects during your Illness, is an undeniable Proof of the unfeigned Attachment which they have to your Royal Person. Those who, at so critical a Moment, were amongst the earliest to express their entire Confidence in that sage and equitable Administration of Government which they at present enjoy, cannot but particularly rejoice that your Majesty is now enabled to continue those Persons in Office, whose prudent Councils have contributed so much to the Public Safety.

When we take also this Opportunity of expressing the Sympathy which we felt with your Royal and amiable Consort in Her late distressful Situation, and of declaring our unanimous Admiration of Her affectionate and exemplary Conduct at that Interval; we cannot doubt but such Expressions will be honoured by your Majesty's benignant Acceptance and Approbation.

That by the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life, Health and Prosperity, the Rights and Liberties of all your Subjects may continue to be constitutionally protected, is by no Persons more fervently prayed for than by us, whose Felicity it is to congratulate your Majesty on the present joyful Occasion.

[Delivered by Wm. Harrison, jun. Esq; Chairman.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of St. Peter, in York.

M A D A M,

WHILE we are expressing to His Majesty the sincere Part we take in the public Joy upon the Restoration of His former Health, we cannot possibly overlook the great Source of His usual Comforts, which on other Occasions never failed to afford Him Relief, but of which He was lately unhappily bereft.
