

ment, and by our incessant Gratitude and Prayers to the Almighty, that our beloved Monarch may long continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health, to reign all powerful in the Hearts of His People.

John Stanford, Sheriff.

Cavan Lent Assizes, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, convened by public Notice at the King's Old Castle, Cork, the 25th Day of March, 1789.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, beg Leave to offer our most warm and affectionate Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from an Indisposition, deeply lamented by all your Majesty's Subjects throughout your extensive Dominions, and by none more sincerely than by those whom Duty and Affection have now assembled.

Sensible of the numerous Blessings this Nation has derived from the August House of Brunswick, we profess the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Illustrious Family, and we seize, with the warmest Satisfaction, this joyful Occasion of declaring our Gratitude to your Majesty, under whose auspicious Reign all those Blessings have been peculiarly felt, and invariably enjoyed.

Fully conscious how much we owe to your Majesty's paternal Care, we cannot sufficiently express our Thankfulness to the Omnipotent Being, who has been graciously pleased to receive our Prayers, and restore a beloved Monarch to His faithful and affectionate Subjects.

We conclude this very inadequate Expression of our Joy, with beseeching the same Almighty Power to grant, that your Majesty may long continue blessed with uninterrupted Health and Prosperity, governing an united and happy People.

Signed by Order of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, in County Court-House convened, George Duncombe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your dutiful and ever loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, humbly offer our Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late severe Indisposition, and beg Leave to express how deeply sensible we are of the ineffimable Value of your Majesty's Life and Health to your faithful People.

The Earnestness and Fervor with which we looked for the happy Times that have now returned, are only to be equalled by the Sincerity with which we pray Almighty God, that your Majesty may long flourish a revered, beloved, Patriot King.

The Worth of a Sovereign so mild, a Parent so provident, and a Friend so true, was never before so fully understood, until He was lost for ever; but it is the peculiar Blessing of your faithful Subjects, that they are awakened to a due Sense of your Majesty's great and endearing Qualities; ere it is too late, and whilst our Country continues to prosper under their benign Influence.

The Afflictions of your Loyal Citizens of Dublin grew the more poignant during your Majesty's late Illness, as we reflected, that nothing but a Care for the Public Weal, too active and incessant, had borne down your Strength, and caused you to faint in the Service of your People.

Return then, Sire, with renovated Vigour of Mind and Body, to attain the glorious Ends to which your auspicious Reign has been directed; live long the Supporter of the Law, the approved Patron and Defender of Civil and Religious Liberty.

Never before did your People experience Anguish occasioned by your Majesty: May this we have tasted be accounted our Share of the bitter Cup; and let the Transit of our good and gracious King from His Throne of Ireland to a Throne eternal, in the Ripeness of Time, and in the Fullness of His Fame, be reserved for the Portion of a future Generation.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed; this 23d Day of March, 1789.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of Belfast.

WE, the Sovereign, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most affectionate Congratulations on the happy Restoration of the King to the Prayers and Wishes of His People.

While we deplored the Indisposition of our Gracious Sovereign as a public Calamity, we most sincerely sympathized with the Affliction of His Family, and especially of your Majesty, whose amiable Character has endeared you to the Nation, and whose Conduct has uniformly exhibited on the Throne an illustrious Pattern of the Virtues of domestic Life.

We beseech your Majesty to be persuaded of the Warmth with which we participate in your Happiness on the joyful Event of the Recovery of the Father of His People. And we trust that this sincere Profession of Respect to your Majesty will be regarded by the King as a new Testimony of our unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to His Person, Family and Government.

Signed at the Request of and in the Name of the Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of Belfast, assembled at the Town House; in Testimony whereof I have caused the Common Seal of the Corporation to be hereunto affixed, this 21st Day of March, 1789.

William Bristow, Sovereign of Belfast.
