

Au R O I.

S I R E,

LES Eglises Françoises Protestantas Refugiées viennent mettre aux Piés de votre Majesté le Tribut respectueux de leurs Homages, dans l'Occasion intéressante qui fait aujourd'hui l'Allegresse de vos Peuples, et immortalise leur Amour pour votre Auguste Personne. Nous en partageons avec eux, à Titre de Sujets fideles, toute la Gloire; mais nous aspirons de plus, Sire, à l'honorable Distinction d'être mis au Nombre de ceux qui benissent, avec le plus de Ferveur, l'Arbitre Suprême des Rois et des Empires, d'avoir daigné, dans Ses Compassions infinies, exaucer nos Voeux, et rendre la Santé au Monarque bien aimé qui nous gouverne. La Protection dont des Rois, Predecesseurs de votre Majesté, ont honoré nos Ancêtres, nous fait de notre Reconnoissance une Loi bien there à nos Coeurs, et ce seroit un Crime, Sire, à nous qui avons, tant de fois, nous memes éprouvé la votre, de n'en pas redoubler dans cet heureux Moment.

Daignez donc lire dans nos Coeurs, Sire, les Transports de la Joye qui nous anime; ils en font seuls de fideles Interpretes, et nos Expressions ne sapient qu'en affoiblir la Force: Puisse la Providence continuer à se signaler envers votre Peuple, par la Conservation des Jours precieux de votre Majesté, et enrichir de toutes Sortes de Graces le Cours d'une Vie, à laquelle sont attachés et la Prosperité de cette Nation, et le Bonheur meme de l'Europe! Que les Sentiments de Loyauté et d'Affection de vos fideles Sujets, Sire, soyent la juste Retribution de vos glorieux Travaux; et que le Nom de votre Majesté passe à la Posterité la plus regulée, comblé des Benedictions de la Generation presente.

Au Nom des Eglises Françoises Protestantas Refugiées,

François Prevost, Modérateur, Charles de Guiffardiere, Secrétaire.

[Delivered by the Rev. F. Prevost, the Rev. St. Gilbert, Messrs. Jean Duval, J. Jacques Le Jeune, and R. Jackson]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Ayr, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and there, with sincere Joy and Gratitude, to acknowledge the Divine Goodness in restoring your Majesty to perfect Health, and to the full Exercise of your regal Power.

We had long felt the Blessings of your auspicious Reign; and nothing seemed wanting to establish the Confidence of your Subjects, in the Wisdom and Vigour of your Government, when Providence gave such an Alarm to your People, and to your Royal Family, from a sudden and unexpected Change in your Majesty's Health, as had well nigh disappointed their Hopes of the Continuance of these Blessings, under the Administration of their beloved Sovereign.

By the speedy and compleat Recovery of your Majesty's Health, brought about by the Wisdom and Goodness of Providence, for the important Purposes of increasing and uniting the Affection and Confidence of your People, we now find you restored to our former Hopes, and to the Capacity of prosecuting that System of Government, which in a few Years has raised this Nation, depressed by the Losses and Expence of the late War, to a Situation at Home and Abroad, which the most sanguine Friends of Great Britain could not have expected in so short a Time.

That your Majesty, by a long and prosperous Reign, may continue to hold us and all your Subjects, bound to you in Gratitude and Affection, and united with you in all your gracious Purposes, for the Happiness of our Country; and that the Blessings of such a Union may descend, with the Crown, to the succeeding Princes of your Royal House, is our earnest Prayer.

Subscribed by our Præses, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 31st of March, 1789.

Tho. Miller.

[Transmitted by Hugh Montgomerie, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Commissioner of the Navy, the Officers, Clerks, Inferior Officers, Artificers, &c. resident and employed in Chatham Dock Yard, and the Officers of His Majesty's Ships in Ordinary, in the Port of Chatham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioner of your Majesty's Navy, the Officers, Clerks, Inferior Officers, Artificers, &c. resident and employed in Chatham Dock Yard, and the Officers of your Majesty's Ships in Ordinary, in the Port of Chatham, most humbly beg Leave, at this Time of general Joy, to express our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to our most Gracious Queen, and your Illustrious Family, and to offer our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on the happy Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health; praying ardently the Divine Providence (to whom we are most humbly thankful for this most gracious Mark of His Divine Favour towards your Majesty and the whole British Nation) to grant to your Majesty a long Continuance of that Health, and every other Blessing, to the Comfort of a loyal, happy and grateful People.
