

we believe that your Royal Bosom glows with a Benevolence towards your faithful Subjects, which ever inspires the Wisdom of your Councils with an earnest Pursuit of their Happiness.

May this Bond of reciprocal Protection and Allegiance, dissoluble only by the Hand of Providence, long endure; and may we never cease to remember, with pious Thankfulness, a Period so repeatedly distinguished in the Annals of this happy Country, for impending Peril and signal Deliverance.

Given under our Common Seal, this 28th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir Henry Dashwood, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dyfart.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dyfart, beg Leave to felicitate your Majesty upon your late Recovery, to present our sincere and affectionate Congratulations on this happy Event, and humbly to express the Joy we feel at your Majesty's being enabled to resume into your own Hands the executive Powers of Government.

We should consider ourselves as insensible to every generous Feeling, did we not embrace this joyful Occasion of testifying how firmly and cordially we are attached to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; of returning our most grateful and devout Thanks to Almighty God for the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign; and of offering up our most fervent Prayers to Him, that as of His infinite Goodness He has so highly favoured these Kingdoms, in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, so He may continue this invaluable Blessing, that your Majesty may long reign over a free and happy People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Dyfart, this 27th Day of March, 1789,

*James Reddie, } Magistrates.
John Brodie, }*

[Transmitted by John Jameson, Esq; Town-Clerk.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Beaumaris, in Common Council assembled this 30th Day of March, 1789, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulation on the happy Recovery of your Majesty's Health. The Benignity and Justice of your Disposition, ever displayed in your parental Care of your People, have justly endeared you to us; and it was with the deepest and most poignant Concern we were obliged to witness any Interruption to that Health which had enabled you to spread universal Happiness by the Mildness and Prosperity of your Government. We sincerely hope and trust that God Almighty, who has been pleased to restore your Majesty to your People, will never cease to pour down His Blessings upon you, and continue your Reign long, prosperous and happy: At the same Time we beg Leave to express our Congratulations to your Royal Consort, on the joyful Transition now experienced from the Depth of Sorrow; and we most earnestly pray, that Her Majesty's exemplary Conduct and conjugal Attachment may long continue to be a Blessing to your Majesty and your Kingdoms.

By Order of the Meeting,
Wm. Lewis, Mayor.

[Delivered by Lord Viscount Bulkeley, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Carnarvon.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bridgmen and Burgesses, and other the Inhabitants of your ancient Town of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

SUFFER us to offer unto your Majesty the sincere and heartfelt Congratulations of your faithful and loyal Subjects of the Town of Henley upon Thames.

We, truly sensible of the Happiness which we, together with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy under your mild and auspicious Reign, do most ardently embrace this Opportunity of publicly testifying the Felicity we feel on your Recovery, and being restored to your faithful and affectionate People.

Long may your Majesty enjoy an uninterrupted State of Health, Happiness and Tranquility, and continue to reign over your Subjects, to whom you are most sincerely endeared by your impartial Administration of Public Justice, and the truly affectionate and parental Concern you have ever shewn for their Welfare, by which the Religious and Civil Liberties, the Trade and Prosperity of this Kingdom, have hitherto been so effectually protected and secured.

Rich. Hayward, Chairman.

[Delivered by the Earl of Macclesfield, High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

ACTUATED with a Sense of the Advantages enjoyed under your Majesty's equitable Government, we, the Provost, Magistrates, Council and most respectable Heritors and Inhabitants, Ministers and Deacons of the Incorporated Trades, of the Royal Burgh of Elgin, in the County of Murray, humbly approach your Majesty's Sacred Person with the most profound Loyalty and deepest heartfelt Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Recovery; an Event justly considered a public Blessing, and most desirable to every Description of your Subjects.

Permit us, in the most cordial and respectful Manner, to express this Joy which fills our Hearts, and the earnest Wishes which we, in common with your other Subjects ever entertain, that your Majesty may long be preserved in Health, and Britain many Years share in the Happiness of your Majesty's wonted Mildness, Wisdom and Equity in dispensing the Blessings of Liberty, Peace and Prosperity to a loyal, a free and grateful People.

We also express our warmest Wishes for the Prosperity of our Gracious Queen, the Prince of Wales, and the other Branches of your Majesty's Royal Family; and that your Descendants may ever sway the Sceptre over British Free Subjects.

This our dutiful and loyal Address is signed in our Name and Presence, by

Geo. Brown, Provost.

Elgin, March 23, 1789.

[Delivered by William Adam, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING,

The Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Paisley.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Paisley, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations upon the very joyful Occasion of your Majesty's being recovered from an afflicting Indisposition, and restored to a dutiful and affectionate People.

We cannot but express our sincerest Joy upon an Event so felicitous to these Realms, and so ardently desired by Persons of every Rank among
