

us; and we trust in the Benignity of the Gracious Providence of God, that your Majesty will be long preserved a Blessing to your People, the great Promoter of public Happiness and of private Virtue, and the Patron and Protector of those inestimable Privileges, both Civil and Sacred, which we have in so eminent a Degree enjoyed ever since the illustrious House of Hanover ascended the British Throne.

Signed by the under present Magistrates, in our Name and by our Appointment, and we have ordered the Seal of the Corporation to be hereunto appended.

*And. Smith.
John Smith.
William Lowe.*

[Delivered by Shaw Stuart, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Renfrew.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with every Sentiment of Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to your Person, Family and Government, and to express our most cordial Congratulations to your Majesty, and our heartfelt Gratitude to Divine Providence on the Restoration of Health to a Sovereign, whose Life we consider as invaluable to these Kingdoms.

Reflecting on the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild, paternal and auspicious Government, and sensible that your Attention has invariably been directed to maintain the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and to promote the Interest and Happiness of your People, we most earnestly pray that your Majesty may be long preserved in the Enjoyment of every possible Felicity, and in the Exercise of those distinguished Virtues which have rendered your Majesty the Admiration of Europe, and the Object of the warmest Affections of this loyal, happy and grateful Nation.

GLASGOW, P.

[Delivered by Shaw Stuart, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the Shire of Inverness.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of this Shire, beg Leave to be permitted, in one Voice, to join the general Joy, and to congratulate your Majesty on being restored in Health to your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

May your Majesty be long preserved the Father of your People, and the Guardian of their united Interests; and may a Line of Successors in your Majesty's August Family, by imitating your Virtues, transmit to Posterity those Blessings which the British Empire have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting,

A. Fraser, of Lovat, Præses.

At Inverness, March 29, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable Lord William Gordon, Representative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Radnor.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Radnor, humbly beg Leave to present, among the rest of our fellow-Subjects, our most sincere and unfeigned Congratulations on the Blessings which the Almighty has been graciously pleased to continue to the British Empire, in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

That your Majesty may long enjoy every domestick Comfort, and reign over a free, grateful and affectionate People, are the sincere and ardent Prayers of us your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed and given under the Seal of the Corporation, by Order of the Capital Burgeses, this 28th Day of March, 1789, Ja. Lewis, Bailiff.

[Delivered by Mr. Lewis, Recorder of Radnor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, in the County Palatine of Chester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, sensible of the Support and Improvement which the Constitutional Liberties of this Country have ever experienced under the illustrious House of Brunswick; and feeling more particularly the beneficial Effects of the mild and equitable Measures of your Majesty's Reign and Government, beg Leave (while we participate in the general Joy diffused throughout these Kingdoms by your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition) with all Humility and Submission to approach your Majesty's Royal Person; and, as a Testimony of our sincere Attachment, to offer our most unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on an Event which the Divine Disposer of all human Affairs hath, in His Mercy, granted to the Prayers of your faithful Subjects, and which is so eminently fortunate for the Welfare and Prosperity of these Realms; and also to express our earnest Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the truest Glory of a Monarch, that of reigning in the Hearts of a free and loyal People.

[Delivered by the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

ENCOURAGED by the Example of our Fellow Subjects, and influenced by our own Feelings, we, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Assistants and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Lostwithiel, in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Town Hall this Twenty-eighth Day of March, One thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-nine, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our Congratulations and heartfelt Joy on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition.

The general Sorrow that appeared in the Countenances of your loyal Subjects during your Majesty's Illness, and the Universal Joy expressed by all Ranks of People on your Recovery, are evident Marks of the Duty and Affection that a grateful People bear to the best of Kings.

Impressed with a Conviction that your Majesty's Endeavours are uniformly designed to promote the Welfare of your Kingdoms, and that your chief Glory is the Happiness of your People, we cannot sufficiently express our deep and awful Sense of the Goodness of Divine Providence in rescuing the Nation from Dependancy, and giving us an Opportunity of laying at the Foot of your Throne this Tribute of our Joy and Gratitude to the Almighty for His gracious Mercies, which we pray may be long continued to your Majesty and your Kingdoms.

[Delivered by Lord Viscount Mount Edgcumbe, Recorder.]
