

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Perth, in Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, impressed with the deepest Sense of the Divine Goodness in restoring your Majesty's Health, beg Leave humbly to present our most hearty Congratulations upon the happy Event.

The Experience we have already had of your Majesty's paternal Care of all your Subjects, and mild and equitable Government, calls forth our warmest Wishes, that it may please God to prolong your Majesty's Days as a Blessing to these Kingdoms, and to Mankind at large.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the 6th Day of April, 1789.

[ Transmitted by the Provost. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailives, Burgesses and Commonalty, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with those warm Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Indisposition, which we trust every Briton feels with ourselves: And measuring their Happiness by our own, we venture to pronounce, that not an Heart which is capable of feeling, or a Tongue of uttering its Sentiments, throughout your Majesty's Dominions, but is full of Joy on this happy Occasion.

We trust that the late Affliction, which it pleased the Almighty to send on your Majesty, was designed to forward some great some good Purpose; but if no more was intended than to unite a grateful People in one firm Band of Loyalty to the best of Sovereigns, its End is fully accomplished.

Deign, most gracious Sovereign, to accept our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health, which, we pray, your Majesty may long continue to enjoy to the mutual Happiness of yourself, our excellent Queen, and your Illustrious Family; and that your Reign may be yet extended many, many Years, for the general Benefit of this Nation and surrounding Kingdoms.

And that, when it shall please the King of Kings to call you from this to a better World, your bright Example may live in your Successor, to the Advancement of his Happiness, and the Benefit of the People he is born to govern.

[ Delivered by the Rt. Hon. Welbore Ellis, John Purling, Esq; and Francis Stuart, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for that Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Council of your Majesty's Royal Burgh of Whithorn.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

UNDER the deepest Impressions of Gratitude to Almighty God, the Sovereign Disposer of Events, we, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the most sincere and affectionate Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from an Affliction for which the Land mourned. Your Majesty's Recovery we consider as the best Blessing to these Kingdoms, and it fills our Hearts with the greatest Joy. We also beg Leave with all Humility to express our Thankfulness to that Providence which so disposed of Things, during your Majesty's Indisposition, as to prevent, as much as possible, every Inconvenience to your Majesty's Royal Family and your Kingdoms.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long, prosperous and happy over a free, loyal and grateful People; and that your Majesty's Royal Progeny may sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms to the latest Ages is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Majesty's Royal Burgh of Whithorn.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Seal of the Burgh to be appended, and our Town-Clerk, in our Presence and by our Appointment, hath hereunto set his Hand, within the Common Hall of the Burgh of Whithorn, this 27th Day of March, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Forfar.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Majesty's ancient Burgh of Forfar, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our most sincere and joyful Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition; and with Hearts truly sensible of the many Blessings which have been diffused during your Majesty's Reign amongst a free and loyal People, we must express, in the warmest Manner, that Pleasure which we feel on the happy Event which has given so much general Joy to all Ranks of your Subjects.

Full of Gratitude to the King of Kings for the Blessing of restoring your Majesty to perfect Health, it shall be our most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruits of your auspicious Government in Returns of Loyalty and Affections from a grateful People; and that the Crown of these Realms may flourish with equal Lustre on the Heads of your August Descendants to the latest Posterity.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment, of the Magistrates and Town Council of Forfar, at Forfar, the 2d Day of April, 1789.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Campbeltown, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Campbeltown, full of Gratitude to Divine Providence for the Restoration of your Majesty's Health, and deeply impressed with a just Sense of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Congratulation on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition; an Event, by which it hath pleased God in His Mercy to change the deep Affliction of your People to universal Joy and Gladness.

Zealous as we are for the Maintenance of the just Prerogatives of the Crown, and the true Principles of our happy Constitution, we have also Cause to rejoice, that, during the Suspension of the Executive Government, both have been preserved inviolate by the other Branches of the Legislature, in a Manner which
