May it please your Majesty,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgesses, Heritors and other Inhabitants of Dundee, assembled together.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, ask Permission humbly to approach the Throne, to express our sincere and affectionate Joy on the truly blessed Event of your Majesty's full Restoration to Health. We mingled our Tears with those of the many Millions who mourned for the Distress of our beloved Sovereign; and now, when His happy Recovery has dispelled the Gloom which overspread this great Empire, we cannot repress the Ardour of our Joy.

With Humility and Gratitude we adore the infinite Goodness of the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe, thus highly manifested to this Kingdom; and we presume to come into the Presence of our most Gracious King to pour forth the Transports of our affectionate Loyalty.

Deeply sensible of the great Blessings which we have hitherto enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we now anticipate with heartfelt Satisfaction the Continuance of our high Advantages; and we make it our fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a great and happy People; to protect and advance their Virtue, their Liberty and their Commerce, and to secure to the British Empire her present distinguished Superiority among the Nations.

Signed by the President of our Meeting, in our Name, in our Presence and at our Appointment, at Dundee, this 4th Day of April, 1789.

David Laird.

To the KING,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Lanark, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of Lanark, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Recovery from your late Indisposition; which happy Event, so ardently wished for, has diffused the most unfeigned Joy and Satisfaction amongst your Majesty's loyal Subjects, as it again affords us the agreeable Prospect of the Continuance of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government.

Permit us then to express the Joy and Gratitude which now fills our Hearts upon this Occasion, and our earnest Wishes that your Majesty, with our Gracious Queen and Royal Offspring, may long be preserved as Blessings to these Realms, and that your Majesty may long possess the British Throne, and reign in the Hearts of a free, a loyal and a happy People.

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester, beg Leave to join our Fellow Subjects in congratulating your Majesty on the happy Re-establishment of the Health of our most beloved Sovereign; an Event which we can never contemplate but with the most awful Sentiments of the Divine Goodness, or without adoring the Hand which has been so visibly stretched out for our Deliverance at a Time of the greatest national Distress.

We had seen too many pleasing Proofs of your Majesty's mild and gracious Manners, whilst we were honoured with your Royal Presence in the Course of the last Summer, not to sympathize most truly with your Majesty during the Sufferings of the best of Kings and of Men: And we shall not cease our most hearty Prayers to Almighty God, who hath turned our Mourning into Joy, that your Majesty may long continue in the full Possession of that Happiness which is now restored to you, and in the Exercise of all those amiable and domestic Graces from which the rest of your Sex, if they have any virtuous Emulation, will take their Example.

[Transmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Re-establishment of the Health of our most Gracious Sovereign; an Event peculiarly interesting to your Majesty, and of the greatest Importance to the Welfare of this Country.

Your Majesty's amiable and excellent Qualities, which have long excited universal Praise and Admiration, have appeared with additional Lustre on the late trying Occasion. We are truly sensible that we have a Queen distinguished by every Virtue that can adorn her Sex, and who will, under every Circumstance, act with Prudence and with Dignity.

That your Majesty may long continue the Source of domestic Comfort to our beloved Sovereign, and that your Posterity may emulate that Conduct which is the Pride and Happiness of the Subjects of this Realm, will be our constant and fervent Prayer.

[Transmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]
