

full of Reverence and Gratitude to Almighty God for His Goodness in restoring your Majesty to your loving and affectionate Subjects; who, truly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and temperate Reign, most fervently pray for the Continuance of your Majesty's Health; and with the utmost Sincerity implore, that there may never be wanting one of your Majesty's august Family to sway the Sceptre of these Realms.

Signed by Appointment, and in Presence of the Meeting, by Kinross, April 7, 1789. Mich. Malcolm, Præses.

[Delivered by George Graham, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight, inspired by the warmest Zeal and Affection, beg Leave to present our Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Restoration to Health, and the Exercise of your Royal Dignity.

We cannot attempt to describe the Exultation we feel on so great an Occasion, so consolatory to your Royal House, so important to the Welfare of Millions, and so deservedly the Subject of adoring Gratitude.

Our Prayers have been heard, and our Joy is complete, unmingled with any Motives unworthy of such pious and benevolent Affections.

Our most fervent Prayers will be continued for the Permanence of your Majesty's Health to a good old Age, adorned by paternal Care of a grateful People, and diffusing the most benign Influence to an admiring and benefited World.

[Delivered by John Barrington and Mark Gregory, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for Newtown, and the Honourable John Thomas Townshend, Representative in Parliament for Newport.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Chief Burgesses and Freemen of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Isle of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Participating in the General Happiness felt by all your Majesty's faithful Subjects on the most happy Recovery of your Majesty from your late Indisposition, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Chief Burgesses and Freemen of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Isle of Wight, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere Congratulations, and to join the universal Prayers of all our Fellow-Subjects to the Almighty Power, that your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Blessing of Health, and to reign over a free and grateful People, truly sensible of the National Benefits derived to them from your Majesty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your Subjects. Given under our Common Seal, the 8th Day of April, in the 29th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Delivered by Ferwoise Clarke Ferwoise, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton.]

May it please your Most Gracious Majesty,

WE, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Campden, in the County of Gloucester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most ardent and unfeigned Congratulations on the happy Restoration to your former Health. It hath not, indeed, been our Custom, on the successful Events of other Times, to mingle our Addresses with those of more splendid Corporations and more opulent Towns, but the present Occasion is of such infinite Importance in our Sight, that though, perhaps, we may appear ridiculous in our Insignificance in the Eye of Pride, yet we shall more willingly incur the Censure of being forward and impertinent than disaffectionate and disloyal. However, therefore, we may yield to other Corporations in Magnificence and Rank, yet we shall yield to none either in the purest and most disinterested Motives, or the fullest and most heartfelt Satisfaction on the present joyful Event; and as we are taught that Heaven equally regards the earnest and sincere Prayers both of the Rich and Poor, ours, we trust, will be equally effectual in bringing down its most eminent and signal Blessings both on your Royal Person and your Posterity. But it may become us to lessen so much of our Boast of pure Disinterestedness as not to grant that we have some Relation in these Prayers to ourselves, since we are most firmly persuaded, that our own Happiness is intimately connected with that of your Majesty, and that the Liberties of Great Britain will for ever be coeval with the mild Domination of the House of Brunswick.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Gainsborough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the Hundred of Wirksworth, in the County of Derby.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, ever actuated with a lively Sense of your Majesty's gracious Attention to our Welfare, beg Leave to approach you with Hearts fraught with Gratitude to Divine Providence for having vouchsafed to us your happy Recovery.

With Minds impressed by the Blessings we participate in the due Observance and Protection of those Rights, which, whilst they support the national Affluence and Prosperity, secure our private Privileges and Comfort; we most ardently wish you a Continuance of Health and domestic Happiness; and that you may long live to possess the Hearts and Affections of a flourishing, free and loyal People.

[Delivered by Sir William Fitz Herbert, Bart. and Philip Gell, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, being justly sensible of the Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty, which we have many Years enjoyed under your Majesty's wife, paternal and auspicious Government, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and pour out those Sentiments of heartfelt Joy with which your Majesty's most happy Recovery has filled and animated our Breasts.

May the Supreme Disposer of all Events, to whom we offer the Tribute of Praise and Gratitude for this signal Instance of His Favour, long, very long, preserve in Health, Honour and Dignity your Majesty's most Sacred Life; may He bless it with the Enjoyments
