

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York.

BE pleased, most Gracious Sovereign, amidst the general Joy which your happy Recovery has diffused through every Part of your Realm, to accept the humble Congratulations of your faithful Subjects the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in Yorkshire: We have been too long sensible of the beneficial Effects of your mild and parental Government, not to become Partakers in the universal Gloom which overspread the Land upon your late Indisposition, and the temporary Suspension of the Regal Authority; and be assured, great and good Sir, that though we may be amongst the last in expressing our Joy, yet we are not behind the foremost of your loyal Subjects in the Sincerity of our Address to your Majesty upon the happy Change which has taken Place in Consequence of your perfect Recovery, and Re assumption of the Reins of Government. May we be as sincere in our grateful Acknowledgments to that Supreme Being who rules over All, and by whom Kings reign, for the visible Interposition of His Providence, on an Occasion so awful, and at a Crisis so very interesting and important to the Peace, Welfare and Happiness of these Kingdoms, that so He may be pleased long to continue to us those invaluable Blessings which He has again put us in the Possession of by the Restoration of our King.

On Behalf and at the Request of the Meeting,
Hen. Wickham, Chairman.

[Delivered by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Warden, Assistants, High Steward, Town-Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town of Louth, in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall assembled.

AMIDST those universal Demonstrations of Joy upon your Majesty's late providential Recovery, by which the Love of your People, the truest Glory of a Monarch, has been so amply displayed, we, the Warden, Assistants, High Steward, Town-Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town of Louth, equally participating the Benefits of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and equally interested in your Majesty's Welfare, and that of your August Family, feel ourselves too sensibly affected with the auspicious Event, and too powerfully impressed with a grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness to remain silent.

Accept then, most gracious Sovereign, this our humble Tribute of the sincerest Congratulation and warmest Affection, who, in true Loyalty and steady Attachment, are not inferior to any of your faithful Subjects, whose earnest Wish and constant Prayer is, that your Majesty, your Royal Consort and Illustrious Descendants may long live in Health, Prosperity and Peace; still enjoying the Blessings of our excellent Constitution amongst a free, united, and happy People.

[Delivered by Sir John Thorold, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lincoln]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, Yeomen and others, Inhabitants of the Towns and Parishes of Buckland-Monachorum, Walkhampton, Meavy, Sandford-Spiney and Horrabridge, in the County of Devon, united, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most dutiful Congratulations, that the Almighty has been pleased to restore the Father of an afflicted People again to rule over them.

Poor, and few in Numbers, yet rich and great in Loyalty, our Mite, like the Widow's, we have presumed, amidst the general Offerings, will not be unacceptable to our most Gracious Sovereign, when we reflect that our Prayers for His happy Recovery have been received at the Throne of Mercy; Prayers not alone of His own affectionate People, but of all the Nations of Europe, that a Prince so truly good, might be restored for the Benefit of Mankind.

That your Majesty may long, very long, enjoy the exalted Pre-eminence of being the Darling of your Country, reigning (where good Kings only should reign) in the Hearts of your People, and looked up to as the Common Parent of Europe, till it shall please the King of Kings to call you, full of Years, crowned with Glory to the Participation of that Kingdom which is prepared for the Righteous alone: And that a Succession of your Posterity, emulating the Virtues of their Ancestor, may reign over free and happy Britons to the latest Period of Time, are the humble and fervent Prayers of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Delivered by John Law M'Mellar, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Constables, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead, in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Constables, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts full of Gratitude to Divine Providence for restoring your Majesty to the ardent Prayers of your afflicted People; and humbly solicit your Majesty's Acceptance of our unfeigned and warmest Congratulations on an Event so peculiarly adapted to the Feelings of the Kingdom at large, and to the real Interests of our glorious Constitution. May the same Almighty Power that has designed to hear our Petitions, continue to your Majesty and your Illustrious House the inestimable Blessing of Health, and enable you, for a long Succession of Years, to reign, as you have hitherto done, in the Hearts of a grateful, free and happy People.

[Delivered by John Forwnes Luttrell, Esq. one of the Representatives in Parliament for that Borough.]
