

in the Ardency of our Thankfulness to Heaven for an Event so seasonably providential and propitious, most anxiously to approach your Majesty with all those Feelings of Joy, Congratulation and Gladness of Heart, which an Occasion so fortuitous in itself cannot fail to inspire, and a Blessing so nationally great and important must necessarily lead to express.

What we were in the Possession of under your Majesty's mild and exemplary Government we knew; to part with, we turned our Eyes from: to preserve, within the utmost Limits of Longevity, are, in common with ourselves, the Hopes, the Wishes and the Prayers of a free, a grateful and an united People.

[Delivered by the Earl of Abingdon.]

The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the dutiful Congratulations of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Carlisle upon the King's Recovery.

Amidst the accumulated Distress, with which His Majesty's Illness overwhelmed the Nation, every Heart felt for the Sufferings of the Queen.

With Joy proportioned to these Sensations, we behold the Return of Happiness, with which it hath pleased God to bless your Majesty and your Royal Offspring.

In this signal Instance of Divine Favor we see a beloved Sovereign restored to a faithful People, an affectionate Husband to the best of Women, a Parent to His Family.

May your Majesty live in the Possession of every earthly Comfort; and may you long afford to the People of this Country an Example of conjugal Virtue rewarded by domestic Happiness!

[Transmitted by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the dutiful and heartfelt Congratulations of the Dean, the Sub-Dean, Priests, Organists and Composers, Gentlemen, Serjeant and Yeoman of the Royal Chapels, on the providential and happy Recovery of your Royal Consort from an Illness, which had spread so general a Gloom over the Minds of His affectionate and loyal Subjects.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that this signal Interposition of Divine Providence in restoring the best of Kings to His Illustrious and amiable Family, and to a faithful People, is considered as the highest Addition to their Happiness, and will meet with every suitable and grateful Return to Heaven for so great a Mercy.

[Transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, Dean of the Royal Chapels.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

DEEPLY impressed with a Sense of those exalted Virtues which have so justly endeared your Majesty to the British Nation, and with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude and Respect for your Royal Person, we, the President, Council and Fellows of the Medical Society of London, beg Leave humbly to offer your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations on the auspicious Recovery of our most Gracious Sovereign, and to assure your Maty of our most earnest Prayers, that His and our Majesty's Lives and Healths may be long preserved as Blessings to each other, and to a dutiful and loyal People.

Signed in the Name and by Order of the Council and Fellows of the Medical Society of London, James Sims, President.

[*Delivered by Dr. James Sims, President; Dr. Lett-
jon, Treasurer; and Dr. Bancroft, For. Secretary.*]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and Governors of the Incorporated Marine Society of London, in General Court assembled, presume to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the King's happy Recovery from His late Illness, and to assure your Majesty, that the Joy we feel on this Occasion is not a little increased by the Persuasion that we owe this blessed Event, under God, in a great Measure to your Majesty's Tenderness, Prudence and unremitted Attention.

In the Restoration of the King's Health we view with Delight the Return of your Majesty's Tranquility and Peace of Mind, and are very desirous to join our thankful Acknowledgments with those of your Majesty to that Providence, on whose Goodness we rely for a Continuance of Health and Prosperity to our Sovereign, to your Majesty, and to every Branch of your Illustrious Family.

[*Transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Romney,
President.*]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit us the Master, Governors and Commonalty of the Art and Science of Surgeons of London, humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty, and to offer our warmest and most unfeigned Congratulations on the auspicious Event of His Majesty's Recovery. Our Satisfaction on this joyful Occasion does not arise more from the Affection we bear to the Person of His Majesty, or our Gratitude for the Mildness and Justice of His Government, than from the Pleasure we feel in reflecting on the Happiness which your Majesty enjoys in this benign and signal Interposition of Providence. It is our hearty Prayer, that His Majesty may long continue to reign, in the uninterrupted Enjoyment of Health and Peace; and that your Majesty may partake of and rejoice in these invaluable Blessings.

Given under our Common Seal, this 20th Day of April, 1789.

By order of the Court of Assistants.

Okey Belfour, Clerk.

[Transmitted by Henry Watson, Esq; Master, and Isaac Manners and John Gunning, Esqrs. Wardens.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and others of the Borough, Town and Parish of Westbury, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and others of the Borough, Town and Parish of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, impressed, in common with all the Rest of our Fellow Subjects, with one and the same Sentiment of your Majesty's peculiarly great and most exalted Virtues, beg Leave, most Gracious Madam, with Feelings of the utmost Veneration and Respect, to lay at your
