Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Divine Interposition of Providence in the Restoration of your Majesty's Health: And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Part of your Kingdom can be more deeply impressed with the Blessings derived to us from this happy Event than are your loyal Subjects of this County.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Radnor, Beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Recovery from your late Indisposition. We consider this Event as one of the most fortunate Benefits which the Divine Providence ever granted to the fervent Prayers of a Nation: At the same Time that we express our Sense of this inestimable Blessing, we feel ourselves indispensably called upon to assure your Majesty, we are happy to reflect that the Measures adopted by the Two Houses of Parliament, during the Interval of your Majesty's Illness, supported and confirmed as they have been by the prevailing Voice of the Country, have afforded your Majesty fresh Proofs of that unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and that Regard for the true Principles of the Constitution, as well as of that anxious Concern for the good Government of your Dominions, which it is evident are rooted in the Hearts of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

We earnestly entreat your Majesty will be pleased to believe, that the loyal Inhabitants of the County of Radnor are as anxious that your Majesty may long continue to rule over a dutiful and affectionate People, as the Subjects of any Part of your Majesty's Dominions can be.
