The following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, have been by him presented to the Queen: Which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of St. David's, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Restoration of the Public Security, and of your own domestic Happiness, by the Recovery of the King from a Malady which spread such general Sorrow and Consternation through all Classes of His People. The bright Example of Virtue, public and domestic, which the Nation hath beheld and admired in your Majesty from the first Moment of your happy Union with our Sovereign, demands that Return of Affection and Reverence from His Subjects, that binds them to take Part in every Thing that may affect the Peace of your Royal Bosom, and the Fortunes of your Illustrious House. It shall be our constant and our ardent Prayer, that your transcendent Merit may be crowned with uninterrupted Felicity through the Remainder of a long Reign; that the Sceptre of these Kingdoms may, to the latest Times, continue with your Illustrious Progeny, trained by your Example and your Precepts, which History shall transmit to all succeeding Ages, to an Imitation of our Sovereign's Virtues and your own.
