

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Flint, assembled at Mold within the said County, truly sensible of the Gratitude we owe to Divine Providence for the happy Recovery of our most Gracious Sovereign from His late Indisposition, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations upon so happy an Event:

The Share your Majesty has had by your tender Care and Assiduity, and by your Endeavours to procure us this Blessing, must add, if possible, to that Veneration which your resplendent Virtues have long inspired us with, and rendered you eminently conspicuous above the Rest of your Sex.

From every Motive of Gratitude we sincerely pray for the long Continuance of your Majesty's domestic Felicity, which is so immediately connected with our own and the publick Welfare.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

John Fitz Gerald, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Roger Mostyn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County, and Major Williams, Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Flint.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty:

PERMIT us, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, with no less Sincerity and Attachment to your Majesty than Affection and Loyalty to our King, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Restoration of your August Consort to Health, to the important Duties of Government, and to domestic Felicity.

With the most heartfelt Satisfaction, and sincerest Gratitude to Heaven, we no less participate in the Happiness and Joy which your Majesty must now experience, than we did in the deep Affliction in which your Majesty and your Illustrious Family were involved during our beloved King's severe Indisposition. And we devoutly pray that nothing may interrupt that public Joy and Tranquility, and that domestic Comfort and Satisfaction, which by His Majesty's happy Recovery are restored and confirmed. Long may our Sovereign live; and reign no less as a Blessing to His faithful and loyal Subjects, than to your Majesty and to every Branch of your Illustrious Family.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. Lord Digby, Lord Lieutenant; Anthony Chapman, Esq; Sheriff; and Francis John Browne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Radnor, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our strong Sense of the Goodness of Almighty God in having restored His Majesty to the personal Exercise of His Royal Authority. We firmly rely on the Goodness of the same Supreme Power for a Continuance of that Blessing; and earnestly intreat, that your Majesty will believe the unexampled Conduct your Majesty pursued, while the Nation was suffering under the severest Calamity inflicted upon it in modern Times, has endeared your Majesty, if possible, more than ever to a grateful, affectionate and dutiful People.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Oxford, Lord Lieutenant of that County.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Town and Borough of Tenby, in Common Council assembled; humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Recovery of the King's Health; and it is our most ardent Prayer that your Majesty may enjoy an uninterrupted Felicity through a long Portion of Time, which we fervently hope is still remaining of the Reign of our most Gracious Sovereign.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Town and Borough, the 4th Day of April, 1789.

T. Williams, Mayor.

[Delivered by Hugh Barlow, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Pembroke.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Town and Borough of Pembroke.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects; the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Town and Borough of Pembroke, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty this public Testimony of our Joy and Happiness on the Recovery of the best of Kings; and at the same Time to offer our Prayers for His Majesty's Health and long Life, to reign over a free and grateful People; and that your Majesty may also continue to partake of those Blessings which we and all His Subjects enjoy under His mild Government, as a Reward for those amiable Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Majesty.

Tho. Wright, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Hugh Barlow, Esq; Representative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Homage Jury of the Manor of Somersham, with the Soke, in the County of Huntingdon agreed to at the Court of the Lord of the said Manor, holden at Somersham the 17th Day of April, 1789, and also of the Lord of the said Manor.

WE beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Restoration of the Health of our most Gracious Sovereign, and on His being enabled to partake of those domestic Comforts which have so essentially contributed to the Happiness of His Reign.

By Order of the Lord and Homage Jury,

James White, Steward.

[Transmitted by Robert Burton, Esq; Lord of that Manor.]

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, James Earl of Findlater and Seafield, Hereditary Constable, and the Magistrates and Town Council of the Constabulary and Royal Borough of Cullen, assembled in Council, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the Recovery of your Royal Consort.
