

intreat Permission to unite with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects in presenting our Congratulations on your Majesty's compleat Restoration to Health. We desire to acknowledge the Goodness of Almighty God therein, and we beseech Him to continue His Care and Protection over you, that, as He hath been pleased to make us, from an afflicted, distressed, now, by your Recovery, a most joyful People, we may shew our Thankfulness by living in all due Obedience to the Laws.

We pray that your Majesty may long reign over us a happy and united People enjoying the inestimable Blessings of our Civil and Religious Liberties which distinguish this Land from all other Nations.

Given under our Common Seal, this 11th Day of May, 1789, by Order of the Court of Assistants,

Rob. Cooke, Clerk.

[Delivered by Peter Girod, Master, and Thomas Cater and Moses Paul Julliot, Wardens.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Court of Assistants, Committee and Members of the New Musical Fund, strongly impressed with the highest Sense of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under the Mildness and Equity by which these Realms have been governed during your Majesty's auspicious Reign, are from that Source unavoidably impelled, to approach your Majesty, though with all Humility, yet with Hearts fraught with the most unfeigned Joy, at the happy Recovery of the best of Kings from so dangerous an Indisposition as made us tremble for the Event, lest we, with the rest of your zealous Subjects, should have been deprived of that Royal Influence which has ever manifested itself most delighted when promoting the Honor, Welfare and Felicity of your People, Permit us therefore, Royal Sire, to offer our Congratulations on this joyful Occasion, by which Consolation is again restored to your faithful Queen and Royal Family, and the most heartfelt Satisfaction conferred on your loyal People, whose fervent Prayers for the Restoration of your Majesty's Providence hath kindly heard and graciously indulged: Long may your Majesty enjoy an uninterrupted State of Health and Felicity; long, very long, live to reign over us, and by these Means make happy a People devoted in sincere Attachment to your Majesty, your Royal Comfort and Progeny, the Dignity of your Crown, and the Glory of your united Kingdoms.

[Delivered by the Rev. Waring, Willett, President; Dr. Edward Miller, Provincial Superintendent of the County of York; George Smart, Treasurer; George Villeneuve; and Henry King, Secretary.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Fife, embrace the Opportunity of our present Meeting to present our warmest Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery.

Sensible of the many Advantages, Religious and Civil, which, in common with our Fellow Subjects, we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government, and attached to your Majesty by Affection as well as by Duty, we felt the deepest Concern on Account of your Majesty's long and severe Indisposition. And we now acknowledge with Gratitude the Goodness of Almighty God in restoring to your Majesty the Blessing of Health.

May your Majesty long continue to reign over these Kingdoms, enjoying the Affection and Confidence of a free, a happy and a grateful People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Provincial Synod of Fife, at Kirkaldy, this 14th Day of April, 1789, by Thomas Fleming, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Thomas Fleming, Moderator.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Honourable the Lord High Steward, Recorder, Steward, Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord High Steward, Recorder, Steward, Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Statford upon Avon, humbly approach your Royal Person with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late severe Illness.

And at the same Time that we adore the Goodness of Almighty God for His late Mercy in this Instance towards us, we most fervently pray that He will be graciously pleased to preserve your Majesty's Health long, very long, to reign over us.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon, the 23d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Delivered by Sir John Mordaunt, Bart. Recorder.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Wick, in the County of Caithness, North Britain, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest and most heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late Indisposition. We, in common with your Majesty's other Subjects, have too long experienced the Mildness and Benignity of your Majesty's Government, not to tremble for the Safety of a Monarch, whose private Virtues and whose public Conduct so justly claim our Admiration and Respect. We have heard with Gratitude to Heaven that the Almighty has been graciously pleased to listen to the united Prayers of every Individual in these Kingdoms, and has restored your Majesty from the Bed of Sickness to the Government of your People. That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and that your Royal Comfort may enjoy the just Rewards of her Care, Fidelity and Attachment, can be wished for by none with more Earnestness and Sincerity than by your Majesty's most faithful Subjects within this Borough.

Signed, and sealed with the Common Seal of the Borough, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Wick, this 18th Day of April, 1789, by James Sinclair, Provost.

[Delivered by Sir John Sinclair, Bart.]
