We beg Leave also to congratulate your Majesty on the great and anxious Solitude so conspicuously shewn by your Majesty's Royal Comfort during your Majesty's long and severe Illness.

We feel a pious Sense of the late Mercy of God in restoring your Majesty to His People.

May your Majesty long live to enjoy a Continuation of Health; an Event which will ensure to your Majesty's Subjects the Blessings of a mild, free and equal Government.

[Delivered by Earl Gorwer, John Daniel, Esq; and Charles Wollett Willis, Esq; Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockton upon Tees, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our humble and sincere Congratulations on the happy Restoration of your Majesty's Health.

Sensible of the Blessings of a mild and benevolent Reign, our Hearts pour forth daily Effusions of Thanks to the wise Disposer of all Things, who thus mercifully hath prolonged your's.

And that it may please Heaven to preserve, for many Years to come, a Sovereign justly esteemed as an Example of Piety and Virtue to His Subjects, of Justice and Liberality to neighbouring Kings, is our sincere and earnest Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeses, Town Clerk, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeses, Town-Clerk, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, with all Humility beg Leave to lay before your Throne our ardent Congratulations on the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health, and your happy Resumption of the Reins of Government.

It was with Minds truly sensible of the Blessings which we derive from your Majesty's great public and private Virtues that we deplored the Calamity which lately threatened to deprive us of their mild and paternal Influence: But it is with Pleasure we can now look back on a severe national Affliction which hath happily proved the Means of ascertaining to your Majesty the Possession of the Hearts and Affections of all good Men amongst us, and of publishing to the whole World that the King of Great Britain is the revered Father of His People.

The Goodness of Divine Providence in restoring your Majesty to our Prayers, makes a Demand upon our Gratitude, which nothing but Impiety can resist: At the same Time it emboldens us to pray, that the same superintending Wisdom which hath blessed us with so excellent a King, may be pleased to extend His Reign to a distant Period, and cause the Lustre of His Crown to be as much distinguished by the Happiness, as it is by the Virtues, of the Wearer.

[Delivered by Dennis Rolle, Esq; Recorder, and John Rolle, Esq; one of the Representatives of the County; and one of the Aldermen of the Borough.]
