

Gracious Sovereign from His late Indisposition to a perfect and confirmed State of Health.

While we lamented the sad Effects of His Majesty's Indisposition, our Grief was the more imbibed by the great Affliction it occasioned to the most excellent and best of Queens. But, Thanks to the Almighty, that Gloom is expelled, and universal Joy now pervades throughout these Kingdoms for the happy Restoration of His Majesty to Health, and for the great Comfort and Happiness your Majesty must feel on the Occasion.

May His Majesty continue to enjoy the Blessing of Health to the latest Period of His Life. May His Reign be long! very long! prosperous and happy, over a loyal, zealous and affectionate People; and may your Majesty share and partake of those Blessings with your Royal Consort, and live long to the bright Example of all your Sex, and to the Felicity and Happiness of the best of Kings.

John Early, jun. Matter.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, High Steward of the Company.]

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Reverence and Gratitude to Almighty God for His Goodness in restoring your Majesty to the ardent Prayers of your People, and humbly solicit that we may be permitted to join in the dutiful Congratulations of your faithful Subjects upon the Re-establishment of your Majesty's Health.

Duly sensible of the Virtues and unremitting Attention of our Sovereign to the Welfare and Prosperity of His Kingdoms, we are animated with the warmest Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty to His Sacred Person and Crown.

And it is our fervent and constant Prayer, that He may long continue to dispense the Blessings of His mild and just Government among a free, united and happy People.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Ossory, humbly entreat Permission to lay at your Majesty's Feet our sincere Congratulations on the signal Recovery of our beloved Sovereign from His late Indisposition.

We have long beheld your Majesty amiable and dignified in the uniform Discharge of every public and private Duty; but the Piety and Fortitude displayed by your Majesty during the late most severe Trials, could not fail to excite our Admiration and increase our Respect and Veneration for so distinguished a Character.

May the same Almighty Power, that has deigned to hear our Petitions, continue to His Majesty the inestimable Blessing of Health, and grant that He and His Royal Consort may long live to be a Blessing to each other, and enjoy every Happiness that can be derived from the Duty and Attachment of a loyal and happy People.
