

which may interrupt the Exercise of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Interests of all your Dominions; but at the present Juncture, when the Gloom of National Calamity is dispelled, and we again behold our beloved Sovereign in the full Possession of Health and domestic Happiness, we are peculiarly impressed with a deep Sense of the Goodness of Almighty God in having listened to the Prayers of an afflicted People, and restored him to their most ardent Wishes.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall not cease to offer up our most earnest Supplications to Heaven, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and that those invaluable Privileges, which your faithful Subjects so eminently enjoy under your Majesty's Auspices, may be preserved in your Illustrious Line to the latest Posterity.

Montreal, June 16, 1789.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Lord Dorchester, Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the Island Saint John, assembled at Charlotte Town upon Trinity Term.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of your Majesty's Island of Saint John, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to join our feeble but affectionate Voice to that of the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in joyful Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Recovery from your late afflicting Indisposition.

Situated as we are in a distant Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and far from the Happiness of your Majesty's Presence, we are equally sensible with any of our Fellow Subjects of the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, and humbly and dutifully assure your Majesty, that none of your faithful People feel more sincere Joy, or are more grateful to the Divine Being for restoring to their Prayers their beloved Sovereign.

That your Majesty may long and happily continue to hold up to the World a bright Example of a just and equitable Rule, as your Majesty equally does of every domestick and private Virtue, is the sincere and ardent Prayers of your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

James Curtis, High Sheriff.
John Paterson, Foreman.
