Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 8, to Saturday September 12, 1789.

Whitehall, September 12.
THE King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable Lord Walsingham, and the Earl of Westmorland, to be His Majesty's Postmaster-General.

The King has been pleased to grant to the Earl of Chesterfield the Office of Master of His Majesty's Mint.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Timothy Caswall, Esq; to be one of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue of Excise in England, in the Room of Anthony Lucas, Esq; deceased.

Madrid, August 24.

An Edict of his Catholic Majesty has just been published here, by which the Trade to the Port of Manila, hitherto confined to the Asiatic Nations, is opened for the Term of Three Years, to commence from the 1st of September, 1790, to the Ships of all the European Powers, which are allowed to carry thither any Asiatic Produce (the Importation of European Goods in Foreign Bottoms remaining strictly prohibited) and to export from thence Silver, and all Spanish Merchandize, as well as such Foreign Articles as may have been conveyed to that Port by the Philippine Company, on the same Terms as this Trade is permitted to the Asiatic Nations.

Vienna, August 29.

The Emperor was Yesterday so much better as to have been able to remain out of his Bed for more than Two Hours. As the Environs of Laxembourg, and even the Gardens of that Palace, are entirely overflowed, in consequence of the present Inundations, it is expected that His Imperial Majesty will return to this Capital, as soon as he is able to bear the Motion of a Carriage.

On the 19th Instant died at Trieste, after a short Illness, in the Sixty-fifth Year of his Age, his Excellency Peter Langlois, General of Infantry, Colonel-

Proprietor of the Regiment of Infantry bearing his Name, Commander in Chief of Anterior Aultria, Governor of Antwerp, and Commandant at Trieste.

Berlin, September 1.

His Prussian Majesty arrived this Morning at Charlottenburg from Silesia, in perfect Health.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22d Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Mess. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Canter has been tried and convicted:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Forgery, and also except the abovementioned Jacob Canter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association of Bankers for discovering and prosecuting Forgeries, and other Frauds, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (excepted as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

William Culverden,
 Chairman of the Association.
