Vienna, September 9.

The Emperor, who removed to Hetzendorff on Thursday last, begins already to benefit from the Change of Air, and his Imperial Majesty is now in a better State of Health than he has been in, at any Time, for the last Five Months.

An Account was published here on Sunday Evening last, by which it appears that, on the 28th ult. the Turks were again defeated by the Corps under General Clairfait, and obliged to take Refuge in the Fortrefs of Orsova.

The March of the Grand Army from Weiskirchen for Syrmia began on the 30th ult. in Three Columns, by different Routes, which are to rendezvous in the Vicinity of Opoza, and to be afterwards joined by the Croatian Army, which has hitherto been encamped at Ruma. The whole Force intended for the Attack of Belgrade is computed at upwards of Seventy Thousand Men.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Dwelling-house of Mr. Richard Saumarez, at Newington Butts, in the County of Surrey, was feloniously and burglariously broke and entered in the Night of the 24th of August last, by Three Men unknown, who were discovered by James Bonner, a Watchman, whom they cruelly and inhumanly beat, cut and wounded, so that he languished 'till Saturday Evening last, and then died.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Burglary and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually gave the Blow which caused the Death of the said James Bonner,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, we the Church-Wardens of the Parish of St. Mary Newington aforesaid, do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned, to be paid by us on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22<sup>d</sup> Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Mess. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Center has been tried and convicted:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery,
