

London, December 29, 1789.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,
With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, established in Ireland in the Year 1773, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Christmas last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lufhington and Boldero, Bankers, No. 30, Cornhill.

And also the Subscribers to the Life Annuities, established in Ireland in the Year 1775, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity due at Christmas last, at the same Place, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 12th of January, 1799, to the 15th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon, until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 19th of January, to the 22d ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 26th of January to the 29th ditto, both Days inclusive, and from the 2d of February, to the 5th ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday Wednesday, Thursday and Friday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of a Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class; and as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to the Deputy Vice-Treasurer, Treasury Chamber, Dublin, or to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lufhington and Boldero.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who, by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

To Personal Representatives.

THE next of Kin of Margaret Hide, late of Pridewood, in the Parish of Yarkhill, in the County of Hereford, deceased, Widow of Paul Hide, late of the same Place, Cider-merchant, deceased, may hear of something to their Advantage by applying to Richard Edmunds, Attorney, at his Seat in the Exchequer Office of Pleas, Lincoln's-inn, London, or to William Holbrook, Attorney, in Ledbury, Herefordshire. The said Margaret Hide's Maiden Name was Keaton, a Native of Ireland, and one of her Sisters is supposed to have lived in the Family of Lord Baltimore about Twenty Years ago.

THE Creditors of Robert Deacon, late of Little Stockport Moor, in the County of Chester, Cotton-spinner, may receive a First and Final Dividend of his Estate and Effects by applying at the Counting-house of Mr. Henry Leigh, near Brazen-Nose Street, in Manchester, on the 12th Day of January, 1790, between the Hours of Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon and Five o'Clock in the Afternoon; and all such Creditors as shall neglect or refuse to make Application at the Time and Place aforesaid will be excluded from all Benefit of the said Estate and Effects.

THE Creditors of Henry Shackleton, late of Little Suffolk-street, in the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Tallow-chandler, deceased, are requested forthwith to send an Account of their Demands to Francis Shackleton, his Nephew, Successor and Administrator, at No. 12, in Little Suffolk-street aforesaid, in order that such Demands may be discharged; and all Persons who were indebted to the said Henry Shackleton at the Time of his Decease are desired to pay the same to the said Francis Shackleton.

Oil of Vitriol and Aquafortis Works for Sale:

TO be sold by Public Roup, within the Old Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 17th Day of March next, betwixt the Hours of Five and Six in the Afternoon, The Works at Prestonpans, occupied for the Purpose of manufacturing Oil of Vitriol; Aquafortis, Spirit of Salt, and Pearl Ashes, with the Utensils belonging thereto.

These Works were the first of the Kind in Britain, are at present the largest and most compleat in Europe, in excellent Repair; and calculated for carrying on a very extensive Trade in the different Branches. They are situated within Eight Miles of the City of Edinburgh, on the Firth of Forth, which gives the Advantage of importing the Materials and exporting the manufactured Goods to all Quarters at an easy Rate, and being in the Neighbourhood of Plenty of good Coal, that Article can be got on reasonable Terms.

The Vitriol Works are distinct from the Pearl Ash or Alkali Works, and may be sold separately, if Purchasers incline.

At same Time will be sold, in Lots suited to the Purchasers, the whole Stock of Brimstone, Saltpetre, and other Materials; together with the Oil of Vitriol, Aquafortis, Spirit of Salt, and Pearl Ashes, which may then be on Hand.

For the Encouragement of Purchasers, the Terms of Payment will be made agreeable, on sufficient Security being given.

For further Particulars apply to Messrs. Robert and Hugh Ingram, London; Messrs. Samuel Henderson and Co. Bristol; Mr. William Fate, jun. Manchester; Messrs. J. and C. Broadleys, at Hull; Messrs. Landell and Chambers, Newcastle upon Tyne; Mr. Alexander Abercromby, and Mr. Lawrence Hill, Writers to the Signet, Edinburgh; or to Mr. James Mackenzie, at the Works; to whom such as incline by private Bargain may address themselves, and who will execute any Orders for Oil of Vitriol, Aquafortis, Spirit of Salt; or Pearl Ashes, till the Day of Sale.
