

Stockholm, March 30.

The King of Sweden embarked on board the Amadis Yacht on the Evening of the 26th Instant, and fell down the Channel on his Way to Finland, but finding the Wind unfavourable he came on Shore again the next Day, and did not finally fail till the 28th in the Morning.

Four Frigates and some smaller Vessels have been cruising for some Time, in order to protect the Passage of the armed Vessels prepared in the different Ports for the Coasting Fleet, and with a View to secure the prior Possession of the Promontories of Porkala and Hango-Udd. After this Point was obtained, the Baron de Cederström, with Two Frigates and a Cutter, proceeded to the little Town and Fort of Roderwick, situated at a small Distance. The Garrison, consisting of a few Invalids, could make no Resistance, and a Capitulation was entered into, by which it was stipulated, that 4000 Rubles should be paid for the Ransom of the Town, and that all the Public Stores, and a Warehouse, containing a considerable Number of Uniforms, were burnt. This Blow was struck on the 16th Instant, and M. de Cederström returned on the 17th to Hango-Udd.
