

Advantages derived from the liberal Supplies granted since the last Peace for the Naval Service. I rely on your Zeal and Public Spirit to make due Provision for defraying the Charges incurred by this Armament, and for supporting the several Branches of the Public Service on such a Footing as the general Situation of Affairs may appear to require. You will at the same Time, I am persuaded, shew your Determination invariably to persevere in that System which has so effectually confirmed and maintained the Public Credit of the Nation.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

You will have observed with Concern the Interruption which has taken Place in the Tranquillity of Our Indian Possessions, in consequence of the unprovoked Attack on an Ally of the British Nation: The respectable State, however, of the Forces under the Direction of the Government there, and the Confidence in the British Name, which the System prescribed by Parliament has established among the Native Powers in India, afford the most favourable Prospect of bringing the Contest to a speedy and successful Conclusion.

I think it necessary particularly to call your Attention to the State of the Province of Quebec, and to recommend it to you to consider of such Regulations for its Government as the present Circumstances and Condition of the Province may appear to require.

I am satisfied that I shall, on every Occasion, receive the fullest Proofs of your zealous and affectionate Attachment, which cannot but afford Me peculiar Satisfaction after so recent an Opportunity of collecting the immediate Sense of My People.

You may be assured that I desire nothing so much on My Part as to cultivate an entire Harmony and Confidence between Me and My Parliament, for the Purpose of preserving and transmitting to Posterity the invaluable Blessings of our free and excellent Constitution, and of concurring with you in every Measure which can maintain the Advantages of Our present Situation, and promote and augment the Prosperity and Happiness of My faithful Subjects.

St. James's, November 24.

This Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by John William Rose, Esq; the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Gratitude upon the agreeable Prospect of a Continuance of established Peace by the Convention with Spain.

Deeply affected with the Injuries sustained by our Fellow Subjects from that Nation, we concurred in the general Sentiments of the whole Kingdom, expressed by the Two Houses of Parliament, on receiving your Majesty's most gracious Message in the last Session, and we beheld with Confidence the vigorous Measures which were adopted to gain full Satisfaction for the Injuries done, and to maintain the Honor and Dignity of the British Empire; to which Measures, and to your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Interests of your People, next to the Divine Providence, we thankfully ascribe the happy Issue of the late Disagreements.

Your Majesty's faithful Citizens of London are too well convinced of the salutary Consequences of continued Peace, to delay their Congratulations upon the Reconciliation with Spain; for, notwithstanding they have ever manifested their Readiness to bear a Proportion of Burthens created by the Prosecution of a just War, they cannot but most ardently rejoice at a Termination of pending Hostilities, at a Time when the Reduction of the National Debt is an Object of Importance to Your People.

Deign, Sire, to accept our most cordial Wishes that Your Majesty's Reign may long continue in Peace and Prosperity over a grateful and affectionate People.

Signed, by Order of the Court,

William Rix.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

I Receive, with great Pleasure, the dutiful and loyal Address of the City of London. The Protection of the Navigation and Commerce of My Subjects is a principal Object of My Attention: And I am confident that I may always expect their unanimous Support in such Measures as may be necessary for that Purpose. It affords Me the highest Satisfaction to reflect, that on the present Occasion this Object has been attained without disturbing that Public Tranquillity, which is productive of such great and increasing Advantages to My People.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which, His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on John William Rose, Esq; the Recorder, and Richard Carr Glyn, Esq; one of the Sheriffs.
