Dublin Castle, November 5.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William. On his Excellency's Return to the Castle the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in College Green. And at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Warsaw, October 24.

Yesterday Evening Intelligence was received here, by M. de Bulgakow, the Russian Minister to this Court, of the Death of Prince Potemkin, which happened at Yassy on the 16th Instant.

Whitehall, November 11, 1791.

*W*HEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, upon the 20th of October last, as His Majesty's Excise Cutter the Badger was cruising between Black Coombe and the Isle of Man, she fell in with a large Smuggling Luggger, when a warm Engagement ensued between the Badger and the said Luggger, wherein Mr. Daniel Stewart, the Master Surveyor, was shot through the Shoulder, Richard Martley, the Cook, through both Legs, and others of the Crew slightly wounded; and after the said Luggger, from her superior Force, had driven the Badger's People from their Guns and Decks, and had prevented their Escape by keeping up a constant Fire upon her, and disabled her Mast and Rigging, she hailed the Badger, and ordered her to send the Boat on Board the Luggger, or that they would sink the Cutter; and the Boat being accordingly sent, she soon returned to the Badger with Six or Eight of the Luggger's People in her, who sent Mr. Inglis, Mate of the Badger, and Three of her Men, on Board the Luggger, and then cut away the Badger's Masts, and cut her Sails from the Yards, threw her Great Guns and Small Arms over-board, and plundered the Badger of her Stores, and the Master Surveyor and Mate of their Clothes, Watches, Money, and other their private Property, with all which they returned to the said Luggger, and then gave the Mate and People of the Badger (whom they had before sent on Board her) their Choice of being thrown over-board, or going again in the small Boat
