PRINCE of WALES's COUNCIL,
November 12, 1791.

THE Names of those who were nominated for Sheriffs by the Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at His Royal Highness's Council Chamber and Duchy Office, Somerset Place, on Saturday the Twelfth Day of November, in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord, 1791.

Whitehall, November 11, 1791.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, upon the 20th of October last, as His Majesty's Excise Cutter the Badger was cruising between Black Coombe and the Isle of Man, she fell in with a large Smuggling Luger, when a warm Engagement ensued between the Badger and the said Luger, wherein Mr. Daniel Stewart, the Master Surveyor, was shot through the Shoulder, Richard Martley, the Cook, through both Legs, and others of the Crew slightly wounded; and after the said Luger, from her superior Force, had driven the Badger's People from their Guns and Decks, and had prevented their Escape by keeping up a constant Fire upon her, and disabled her Mast and Rigging, she hailed the Badger, and ordered her to send the Boat on Board the Luger, or that they would sink the Cutter; and the Boat being accordingly sent, she soon returned to the Badger with Six or Eight of the Luger's People in her, who sent Mr. Inglis, Mate of the Badger, and Three of her Men, on Board the Luger, and then cut away the Badger's Masts, and cut her Sails from the Yards, threw her Great Guns and Small Arms over-board, and plundered the Badger of her Stores, and the Master Surveyor and Mate of their Clothes, Watches, Money, and other their private Property, with all which they returned to the said Luger, and then gave the Mate and People of the Badger (whom they had before sent on Board her) their Choice of being thrown over-board, or going again in the small Boat to the Badger, which, from a heavy Gale of Wind that had then come on, there was little Probability of their reaching, but they providentially effected it, and the Badger is since returned a perfect Wreck to the Isle of Man:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring Acts of Violence and Piracy, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to such of them as may give Information against one or more of their Accomplices, except the Master and Mate of the said Luger, and excepting all those Persons who actually went in the Luger's Boat on Board the Badger and plundered her as aforesaid, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And the Commissioners of Excise, in lieu of the Reward offered by them in the London Gazette of the 12th Instant, (which Offer they hereby revoke) do now offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover or apprehend the Master.

Master of the said Luger; and also a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover or apprehend the Mate of the said Luger; and also a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover or apprehend any one or more of the Crew of the said Luger that actually went on board of and plundered the Badger; and a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover or apprehend any one or more of the Remainder of the Crew of the said Luger; the said respective Rewards to be paid by their Secretary on Conviction of the Offenders respectively.

By Order of the Commissioners,
W. Jackson, pro Sec.

Whitehall, November 15, 1791.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday Morning, the 13th Instant, between the Hours of Six and Seven, a Fire broke out in an Empty House, near Mill Stairs in the Parish of Bermondsey in the County of Surry, which, by timely Assistance, was prevented from doing any Damage to the adjoining Premises; and that it appears the said House had been wilfully and maliciously set on Fire in two Places by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown, who had feloniously entered through a back Window of the said House:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in the said Felony, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said House) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is promised to be paid by the Churchwardens of the Parish of St. Mary Magdalen, in Bermondsey, in the County of Surry, to any Person who shall discover the Offender or Offenders, so that one or more of them may be apprehended and brought to Conviction.
