JOHN Coryton, of the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, Esquire, Thomas Graham, of the same Place, Esquire, Henry Hawkins Treinayne, of Helligan in the same County, Clerk, and John Rashleigh, of Penquite in the same County, Esquire, Persons who have a Right to choose, nominate and appoint the Returning Officer of the said Borough, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That it appears to the Petitioners, by the Votes of the House of the Seventh Day of March last, that the Select Committee of this House who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of the Honourable Richard Edgecumbe, commonly called Lord Valletort, and Philip Rashleigh, Esquire, then before the House; and also another Petition of the Right Honourable Molyneux Lord Shuldham and Sir Ralph Payne, Knight of the Bath; and also another Petition of John Rashleigh, Richard Hennah, Samuel Nicolls, Nevil Norway and Benjamin Bloomfield, of Fowey in the County of Cornwall aforesaid, being Persons who had a Right to vote at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, on Behalf of themselves and others who were at the said Election lawfully Electors for the said Borough, severally complaining of an undue Election and Double Return for the said Borough, did report to the House, That the Merits of the Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of choosing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer who was to make Return of such Election; and that thereupon the said Select Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of choosing; nominating or appointing the Returning Officer for the said Borough, for which they respectively contended: That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the Petitioners, Lord Shuldham and Sir Ralph Payne, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Portreeve is the Returning Officer at Elections to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Fowey; the Portreeve for the said Borough is chosen or presented by the Homage at a Court holden for the said Manor of Fowey; usually soon after Michaelmas, by the Steward or the Deputy Steward of the Prince of Wales, Lord of the said Borough and Manor, in Right of his Duchy of Cornwall." That the Counsel for the said Petitioners, Lord Valletort and Philip Rashleigh, and also for the said Petitioners John Rashleigh, Richard Hennah, Samuel Nicolls, Nevil Norway and Benjamin Bloomfield, on Behalf of themselves and others, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Persons entitled to elect a Portreeve of the Borough of Fowey are those who are capable of holding that Office, that is, such Prince's Tenants only as have been duly admitted on the Court Rolls of the Manor of the said Borough, and have done their Fealty; and such Persons only are duly admitted whose Lands were anciently, and continue to be, held immediately of the Duke of Cornwall, as Parcel of his said Manor of the said Borough, and whose Titles to those Lands have been presented at a Court Baron by a sworn Homage, or a Jury of the said Freeholders of the said Borough." That the said Select Committee had duly considered of the said Statements; and the Evidence adduced before them, touching the Right of choosing, nominating or appointing the Returning Officer for the said Borough of Fowey, and had determined, "That the Portreeve of the Borough of Fowey is the Returning Officer for the said Borough; and that it is necessary that such Returning Officer should be chosen or presented by a Homage or Jury of Prince's Tenants duly admitted on the Court Rolls of the Manor of the said Borough; and that Prince's Tenants, admitted by the Steward or Deputy Steward, at a Court holden in the said Manor, are duly admitted; and that the Presentment of the Homage is not necessary to such Admission." That the Petitioners conceive themselves to be greatly aggrieved by such Determination of the said Select Committee, and therefore pray, that they may be admitted as Parties to oppose that Right of choosing, nominating and appointing the Returning Officer of the said Borough, who is to make Return of Members elected for the said Borough, which has been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, and so reported by them as aforesaid to the House. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Wednesday the Fourteenth Day of March next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the First Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.
