JOHN Christian Curwen and Wilson Braddyll, Esquires, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, That on the Third Day of March, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, a Select Committee of this House, appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of the said John Christian Curwen and Wilson Braddyll, and also of another Petition on the Part of and subscribed by several other Persons, Freemen and Citizens of the City of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland, and having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said City of Carlisle, reported to this House their final Determination on the Merits of those Petitions, and did, at the same Time, also report to this House, that it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the said Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of Election for the said City; and that thereupon the said Committee had required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended: That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the said John Christian Curwen and Wilson Braddyll, and also for the said other Petitioners, the Freemen and Citizens of the said City of Carlisle, having a Right to vote in the Election of Citizens to serve in Parliament for the said City, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Petitioners state the Right of Election to be in the Freemen of the City of Carlisle, duly admitted and sworn Freemen of the said City, and deriving their Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman resident during such Apprenticeship within the said City, or by Election of the Mayor and Common Council of the said City, with the Consent and Approbation of certain Persons called the Fours, otherwise the Fours of the Election, of each of the Eight Guilds or Occupations within the said City, as Representatives of the whole Commonalty of the said City: They also state, that no Person is intitled to be admitted a Freeman of the said City who has not been previously admitted a Brother of One of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the said City." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, James Clarke Satterthwaite and Edward Knubley, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state the Right of Election to be in the Freemen of the City of Carlisle, who acquire a Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freemen, or by serving an Apprenticeship during Seven Years to a Freeman, or by Election of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Capital Citizens of the said City: They also state, that it is not necessary, in order to become a Freeman of the said City, to have been previously admitted a Brother of One of the Eight Guilds or Occupations within the said City." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners the said Select Committee determined, "That the Right of Election as set forth in the said Statement is not the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members the said Select Committee determined, "That the Right of Election as set forth in the said Statement is not the Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle, determined, "That the Right of Election for the City of Carlisle in the County of Cumberland

[ Price Eight-pence. ]

“Cumberland is in the Freeman of the said City, duly admitted and sworn Freeman of the said City, having been previously admitted Brethren of One of the Eight Guilds or Occupations of the said City, and deriving their Title to such Freedom by being Sons of Freeman, or by Service of Seven Years Apprenticeship to a Freeman, resident during such Apprenticeship within the said City, and in no others.” That on or about the Thirteenth Day of February last, Thomas Wilson Morley, James Paine, Robert Murray, Edward Wastell, John Richardson, Robert Yarker, Thomas Wyley, John White, Richard Rowland, Joseph Yeoward, Ralph Elliott, and Joseph Brownrigg, presented their Petition to this House in order to prevent the said Judgment of the said Select Committee from becoming final and conclusive in all subsequent Elections of Members of Parliament for the said City, thereby stating they were not satisfied with the said Resolution, and were desirous of being admitted Parties to oppose such Right of Election, and to have the Benefit of the Statute in that Case made and provided, and praying this House to take the Premises into Consideration, and to grant them such Relief herein as this House should think fit: That the Petitioners humbly insist that the Right of Election which hath been deemed valid in the Judgment of the said Select Committee, and in Favour of which the said Select Committee so reported as aforesaid, is the antient and true Right of Election for the said City of Carlisle: The Petitioners, therefore, pray that they may be admitted as Parties to defend such Right of Election so reported to this House as aforesaid, according to the Form of the said Statute, and that they may have such further and other Relief as to the House shall seem meet, and as the Nature of their Case may require. I do hereby give Notice, that the House has appointed Tuesday the Twelfth Day of June next to take the said Petition into Consideration, at the same Time that the Petition of Thomas Wilson Morley, James Payne, Robert Murray, Edward Wastell, John Richardson, Robert Yarker, Thomas Wyley, John White, Richard Rowland, Joseph Yeoward, Ralph Elliott, and Joseph Brownrigg, Citizens of the City of Carlisle, are ordered to be taken into Consideration. Given under my Hand the Nineteenth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and Ninety-two.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Lunæ, 19<sup>o</sup> Die Martii, 1792.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of Sir Godfrey Webster, Baronet, and John Tarleton, Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Town and Port of Seaford in the County of Suffex, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, That it appeared to the said Select Committee that the Merits of the Petition did in Part depend upon the Right of Election, and that thereupon the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the Sitting Members, John Sargent and Richard Paul Jodrell, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: “That the Right of Election is in the Bailiff, Jurats and Freeman, and in the Populacy, according to the last Determination of the House of the 10th of February, 1670, by which Word Populacy are meant Inhabitants Housekeepers paying Scot and Lot, as explained by the Resolutions of the House of the 15th of December, 1761.” That upon the said Statement the said Select Committee have determined, “That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Town and Port of Seaford.” That the Counsel for the said Petitioners, Sir Godfrey Webster, Baronet, and John Tarleton, Esquire, delivered in a Statement as follows: “The Counsel for the Petitioners state, that the Right of Election for the Town and Port of Seaford, according as the same was decided by the last Determination in the House of Commons on the 10th of February, 1670-1, is “in the Populacy,” or, according to the Interpretation of the Word “Populacy” by the Resolution of the said House on the 15th of December, 1761, in the Inhabitants Housekeepers of the said Town and Port paying Scot and Lot, and in such Inhabitants Housekeepers only.” That upon the said last mentioned Statement the said Select Committee have determined, “That the Right of Election is in the Inhabitants Housekeepers of the said Town and Port, and in such Inhabitants only.” I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, “An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of Controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.” Given under my Hand the Nineteenth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

And the Commissioners think it necessary thus publickly to caution all Persons against buying or selling any Shares of Tickets, other than such as are legally stamped; or publishing, in any Manner, Proposals for such Purpose; the Act having prohibited, under large Penalties, the dealing in Chances, under any Pretence or Device whatsoever, which may depend on the Contingency of drawing the said Tickets; and a recent Judgment in the Court of King's Bench having determined, that the Prohibition against publishing illegal Proposals, applies not only to the Proposors of them, but extends also to the Publishers of Newspapers, of Hand-Bills, or any other Communication of such Proposals.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Secretary.

STATE LOTTERY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-place, Feb. 27, 1792.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, that by the Act of the Twenty-seventh of His present Majesty, entitled, "An Act to render more effectual the Laws now in being for suppressing unlawful Lotteries," it is enacted, that Persons LICENSED or unlicensed, who shall, in any public or private Office or Place, by themselves, or as Servants or Agents to any other Person, insure for or against the Drawing of any Lottery Ticket, or Share thereof, shall be deemed ROGUES and VAGABONDS, within the true Intent and Meaning of the Seventeenth of His late Majesty, and punished as such; with a Proviso, however, that it may be lawful for any Person, actually possessed of a whole undrawn Ticket, to insure the same for the whole Time of Drawing, according to the Form of Agreement particularly prescribed by the said Act; and in no other Manner whatsoever.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.
