

Pretext they may be grounded, are not only contrary to Law, but dangerous to the most important Interests of this Kingdom: And We do further require and command all and every Our Magistrates aforesaid, that they do, from Time to Time, transmit to One of Our Principal Secretaries of State, due and full Information of such Persons as shall be found offending as aforesaid, or in any Degree aiding or abetting therein; it being Our Determination, for the Preservation of the Peace and Happiness of Our faithful and loving Subjects, to carry the Laws vigorously into Execution against such Offenders as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at the Queen's House, the Twenty-first Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, in the Thirty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

WHEREAS Hostilities have broken out between the Most Christian King, and the King of Hungary; His Majesty, for the Preservation and Continuance of Friendship and Amity between Him and Their said Majesties, doth, by this His Royal Proclamation, (with the Advice of His Privy Council) strictly prohibit and forbid all His Subjects whatsoever, to take any Commission at Sea, from any Foreign Prince or State, against any other Foreign Prince or State now in Amity with His Majesty, or Their Subjects; or by Virtue or under Colour of any such Commission already taken, or hereafter to be taken, to set out or employ any Vessel or Ship of War, or to serve as Marines in any Ship or Vessel which shall be employed against any Prince or State now in Amity with His Majesty, or Their Subjects, during the present War: And all His Majesty's Subjects are required to take Notice of this His Royal Command, and to conform themselves to the same, upon Pain of incurring His Majesty's high Displeasure, and of being punished with the utmost Severity of Law and Justice. And whereas the Most Christian King hath caused Application to be made to His Majesty, that His Majesty would, conformably to the Third Article of the Treaty of Navigation and Commerce, concluded at Versailles the Twenty-sixth of September, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, renew and publish, in all His Dominions and Countries, the strict and express Prohibitions contained in the said Article: His Majesty doth hereby strictly forbid all His Subjects to receive any Commission for arming and acting at Sea as Privateers, or Letters of Reprisals, from any Enemy of the Most Christian King, or by Virtue or under Colour of such Commissions or Reprisals, to disturb, infest, or any ways damage His Subjects; or to arm Ships as Privateers, or go out to Sea therewith, under the severest Punishments that can be inflicted on the Transgressors, besides being liable to make full Restitution and Satisfaction to those to whom they have done any Damage.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, in the Thirty-second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, May 26.
