

Mischief their wrong Conduct might unhappily have produced.

The strong Attachment we have to your Majesty, and the Constitution, will insure every Assistance in our Power for the Preservation of Peace and good Order, and stimulate us to detect and bring to Justice the Enemies of your Majesty, our Country, and it's Laws.

Whitehall, June 26.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon in the County of Warwick, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Thanks for the Wisdom and Benevolence manifested to us and all your Majesty's loyal Subjects by your late Royal Proclamation.

We venerate the Constitution of this Kingdom, as established by the Glorious Revolution; and we trust that the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoying with us the most abundant National Prosperity under your Majesty's auspicious Government, will also, with us, unite their utmost Support to your Majesty's Endeavours to continue these Blessings by suppressing those seditious Publications, Societies and Correspondences, which we conceive would otherwise be productive of the most alarming and dangerous Consequences.

Given under our Common Seal, this 14th Day of June, in the Thirty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorset.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, with others of the Principal Inhabitants of your antient Town of Rye.

PERMIT us, Sire, upon an Occasion which, we trust, unites the Sentiments of every real Friend of our Country, to approach your Majesty's Throne, penetrated with the warmest Gratitude for that paternal and unceasing Vigilance over the Peace, Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom, which has ever distinguished your Majesty's Reign, and which, at this Juncture, is eminently displayed in the Royal Proclamation sent forth to prevent the mischievous Effects of a discontented and seditious Spirit in certain of your Majesty's Subjects, insensible, as it should seem, to the Merits of that happy Constitution and Government under which this Country has so long subsisted, the Envy and Admiration of the World.

As in Duty bound, we eagerly press forward, with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, to testify our Sense of those innumerable Blessings we continually experience under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and to express our Confidence, that, if a Blessing could be added to those we enjoy, your Majesty's Wisdom and Patriotism would anticipate the Wishes of your People.

With these Sentiments we presume most humbly to offer your Majesty our unfeigned Assurances of Loyalty and unshaken Fidelity.

[Transmitted by Tho. Phil. Lamb, Esq; Mayor of that Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of your Royal Borough of Nairn, in North Britain, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude for the inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and to express our Abhorrence at that Spirit of Innovation, and those inflammatory Doctrines which have lately gone forth, and are now propagated, for the offensive Purpose of ascertaining the Rights of Men, but which have a manifest Tendency to introduce Anarchy, Riot and Discord, and overturn a Constitution founded upon the most consummate human Wisdom, and which has stood the Test of Ages, securing to this Island as much real Happiness as could reasonably be hoped for by Man in a State of Civil Society.

Though we have the Happiness to inform your Majesty of the tranquil State of this Corner of your united Kingdoms, it is our firm Purpose, both in a public and private Capacity, to render nugatory and ineffectual every Attempt tending either to inflame the Public Mind, or innovate that happy Constitution, which has so long been the Admiration of Mankind.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by the presiding Magistrate, at Nairn, the 14th of June, 1792.

Alex. Inglis.

[Transmitted by Sir James Grant, Representative in Parliament for the County of Bamff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkaldy, in Common Council assembled, beg at this Time to express their Zeal and Attachment to the Constitution of their Country, their Loyalty to their Sovereign, and their most grateful Thanks for the new Marks of his Fatherly Regard and Affection to his People, so clearly set forth in the late Royal Proclamation.

Sensible of the great and many Advantages, Religious and Civil, which we at present enjoy, and knowing that the Continuance of those Blessings depends upon a sacred Regard to Order and to the Laws, we are resolved to discourage and refrain, to the utmost of our Power, whatever may tend to lessen that Regard, and to exert our Endeavours to support and maintain the general Tranquillity and Prosperity of this Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

It is our constant Prayer that your Majesty may long reign over a free and happy People, and that the Constitution, in Church and State, may be handed down unimpaired to latest Posterity.

Signed and sealed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, this 14th of June 1792.

Michael Beveridge, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Hon. Charles Hope, Representative in Parliament for that Burgh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Kinghorn.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave to return our most grateful Thanks for the paternal Care which your Majesty
